WHY IS ELECTRIC LIGHT BEST?

Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.

HEALTHY! It has no odor. Prof. Thomson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four adults.

CLEAN It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.

SAFE As electric bell work, no danger of suffocation.

CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illuminant.

WORK OF THE HOUSE

Bill Providing For Election of Railroad Commissioners Is Discussed.

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Lynds introduced and the house adopted today
a resolution calling on the state auditor for information whether he had called to the attention of all municipalities entitled to such privileges the possibility of borrowing from the public school fund; also, whether any existing laws prevented him from soliciting such loans in competition with other sources. The following bills were passed:

Dunn—Relating to actions in justice
and municipal courts.

Peria—Authorizing Brainerd to issue certificates of indebtedness to rebuild a bridge.

Dunn—Relating to foreclosure of mortgages in certain cases.

Forney introduced a bill to authorize the increased production of binding
twine in the state prison twine factory,
at an expense of $20,000 for machinery
and $30,000 for additional raw materials.

The house then went into committee of the whole, Mr. Staples presiding, to consider bills on general orders.

The Forney bill for election of millroad and warehouse commissioners was discussed at some length. It provides for ten-year terms, and an amendment for six-year terms was proposed by West, while Grandahl wanted it made four years. Both amendments were defeated. Roberts wanted to amend to retain the present contract system, but the committee of the whole rejected the amendment and thereby gave Governor Johnson
a chance at some additional appointments. Farnes, a Democratic member, objected to so partisan a proposition, asserting that the amendment would legislate into office a Republican whose term would ordinarily end next January. Roberts disavowed any such intention. Jacobson announced that the Republicans had no desire to take any plums away from the governor, and the bill was laid aside, to resume the preparation of an unobjectionable amendment covering the point raised by Roberts.

The Western bill providing for organization of school districts in unorganized counties, and the Guttersen bill amending the law relating to school meetings in common school districts were recommended to pass.

The committee reported to the house,
which then adjourned.

HEATHEN HAWAII.

Rev. Leadingham Says There
Is Much Heathenism
There Yet.

Boston, Jan. 23.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions
has just received an interesting report on the present condition of the Hawaiian islands. The report is from Rev. J. Leadingham. After stating that Christianity is making scores and hundreds of converts, Mr. Leadingham says:

Heathenism also is a foe which Christianity must still encounter here.
Besides the lingering remnants of Hawaiian heathenism is that which is imported from China and Japan. Shinto and Buddhist priests are active in the support of their faith among the Japanese laborers in some places in the islands.

On a recent trip to the island of Hawaii, Mr. Leadingham saw on one side of the road a building, in front of which were some peculiarly shaped banners attached to tall poles. A pathway leading up to the building had been cut through the steep bank by the roadside,
and the banks on either side of this pathway were stuck full of short pieces of bamboo, attached to which were strips of paper covered with Japanese characters.

The building was a Shinto shrine, and the strips of paper on the sides of the pathway were prayers. There was real heathenism from Japan.

It is no uncommon sight to see a heathen loaded with Chinamen, and having with them a nicely roasted pig on the way to the cemetery to pay their homage to their dead ancestors.

WILL LIBERATE PRISONERS.

The Filipino Congress Has Authorized
Their Release.

Madrid, Jan. 23.—According to a dispatch received here from Manila, the Filipino congress at Malolos has authorized the release of the Spanish civil prisoners and will shortly liberate
the military prisoners.

STILL LACKS THIRTEEN.

Governor Stone's Confidential Talk
Does Quay No Good.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 23.—The fifth ballot in joint assembly of the senate and house today for senator resulted:
Quay, 63; Jenks (Dem.), 48; Datzell
(Rep.), 11; Irvin (Rep.), 3; Stewart
(Rep.), 3; Huff (Dem.), 2; C. W. Stone, (Rep.), 6; Tu-
liss (Rep.), 3; Grow (Rep.), 3; Markle
(Rep.), 1; Downing (Rep.), 1; P. A. Weldener (Rep.), 2. Total vote cast, 150;
necessary to choose, 75. No election.
Failed, 49; absent without notice, 4.

GRAY LOSTS ONE.

Dover, Del., Jan. 23.—The ninth joint ballot for United States senator resulted as follows: George Gray (Dem.),

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Elk Warner Is Said to Be Slated For United States Marshal.

Washington, Jan. 23.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is said by Minnesota members today that the next United States marshal for Minnesota will be Elk S.
Warner of St. Paul. Some of these members are of opinion that Senators Nelson and Davis have finally agreed upon Warner,
but some of the shrewdest politicians in Washington are of the opinion that they do not believe that Nelson has agreed to Warner's appointment. They are of opinion that if the president has decided upon Warner the victory in this latest Minnesota federal appointment contest is due to the Davis influence at the White House. Nelson, it is believed, wanted a sixth district man appointed and the man he favored was Harkness of Long Prairie.

Representative Morris is still being congratulated over his good work as a member of the judiciary and river committee in drafting the bill which has been reported to the house. Of course if the senate does not pass down some of these appropriations and the total expenditure called for in the bill is not reduced $200,000 or $300,000, the president will veto the measure. His limit for expenditures outside of the contingents contract system is $200,000. If a measure comes to him carrying more than this amount no river and harbor
bill will become law at this session.

Representative Morris today introduced a bill authorizing the Grand Rapids Power and Boom company of Grand Rapids, Minn., to construct a dam and bridge across the Mississippi river at a point within the limits of the village of Grand Rapids.

It is learned today that the president has offered Representative Tawney the late Representative Dingley's place on the joint high commission. Mr. Tawney declined the offer. He called at the department today and asked that an opinion be rendered on the claim of the company that poles can be erected and wires strung on the streets
on the ground that they are post roads.
An opinion will be rendered in a few days.

A protest was made to Indian Commissioner Jones today by Editor Bernard of Walker against the removal of the Leech Lake agency. The commissioner told him nothing had been done yet, and that if the delegation would get together he will do what is decided on by them.

MRS. GEORGE ARRANGED.

But Her Attorneys Secure a Postponement Without Date.

Canton, Ohio, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Anna George was taken into court today for arraignment on the indictment for the murder of George D. Saxton. Attorneys John C. Wally and James S. Sterling, who have represented her without fee, asked for a postponement. The court direct authority of the court up to this time, were assigned to defend her. They objected to arraigning her at this time, claiming there were features of the indictment they wanted to investigate would get together. A continuance was granted, no date being set.

WILL YIELD TO DIPLOMACY.

Such Is the Belief Concerning the Samoa Question.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Such exchanges
as have taken place up to this point between the three governments, parties to the treaty of Berlin, in relation to the occurrences in Apia have been rather unofficial in character and have been confined pretty closely to expressions of a willingness to deal with the matter soberly and stand by the terms of the treaty. In the disposition displayed there is every reason to believe that this Samoa question will yield to ordinary methods of diplomacy unless something has happened in the meantime at Apia to aggravate the situation.

PTER SALOON THIEVES.

St. Paul, Jan. 23.—A special to the Dispatch from Chippewa Falls, Wis., says: Chief Cameron is in hot pursuit of two thieves who forced an entrance to the saloon of John Long, corner of Central and Main streets, Saturday night, and robbed the proprietor of $102.
The parties suspected took a mill-niet freight for St. Paul and have not been heard of since. Cameron has a little doubt of effecting their capture. They have a bad reputation.

COTTON BURNED.

London, Jan. 23.—A fire broke out last evening in 500 bales of cotton lying on the wharf at Genoa which had been discharged from the British steamer Barbara, from Galveston, Dec. 22. Two thousand bales were almost completely destroyed.

BOARD TO GOVERN

Secretary of War Has Completed Organization of a Colonial Commission.

GRANT FRANCHISES

They Will Deal With All the Troublesome Issues That Arise.

Washington, Jan. 23.—The secretary of war has completed the organization of a colonial commission to undertake the administration here in Washington of all matters of detail respecting the government of the territories acquired during the war or occupied by the United States forces.

The personnel of the commission will be Gen. Robert P. Kennedy, of Belmont, Ohio; Curtis Guild, of Massachusetts; and George W. Watkins, of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Up to this point the secretary and assistant secretary have undertaken themselves to deal with the administration of insular affairs, but the questions involved have become so numerous and complicated that it has been found absolutely necessary to call for assistance. The commission will deal with the bestowal of franchises and concessions, the distribution of money to be spent in public improvements, and all of the troublesome issues that have arisen and are likely to arise in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

FOR A DAY'S OUTING.

President and McKinley Sail Down the River.

Washington, Jan. 23.—President McKinley, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley, and a party of friends, went down the river this forenoon on the dispatch boat Sylph for a day's outing. In the party were Col. and Mrs. Herdick, of Cleveland; Capt. and Mrs. Williams, of Chicago; Capt. and Mrs. Rand, Miss Mary Farber, Miss Mabel McKinley, Miss Clara Shields, Miss Mary McWilliams, Miss Carrie Harter, C. E. Schultz and James Barber. All the members of the party are guests at the White House. The party will return to the city this evening.

RUSH ORDERS.
Omaha, Jan. 23.—Rush orders were received today at the headquarters of the department of the Missouri river, forwarding of the Twenty-second infantry to San Francisco. The railroad will have the equipment at Fort Crook this evening, and loading will be commenced at once. The regiment has orders if possible to reach San Francisco on Jan. 28 to sail on the Sonoma or Ohio, but it is not thought possible they can reach there by that time. The party have here, four companies each, on the Burlington, Rock Island & Missouri Pacific.

TO PRACTICE AT HOME.
Milwaukee, Jan. 23.—A baseball manager of the Milwaukee baseball team, has issued orders today to his men to report to him at their homes in April. It has been decided not to take the team South. All practices will be done in this city for practice and April 29 a number of exhibition games will be played. He is negotiating with Dad Clark, formerly of Louisville and New York, to accept a place on the team as pitcher.

HAYWARD GAINS.
Lincoln, Jan. 23.—Hayward's vote was one greater today than at any time since the balloting began, and the absence of two of his avowed supporters makes his real gain three. The vote was as follows: Allen, 53; Hayward, 41; Webster, 10; Thompson, 7; rest scattering. Necessary to a choice, 61.

REMAINS IN STATE.
Denver, Jan. 23.—The remains of the late ex-Governor J. B. Cooper lay in state at the capitol from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. today. The legislature adjourned as a mark of respect, and most of the members, as well as the state officers, attended the funeral services, which were held this afternoon.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEES.
Washington, Jan. 23.—The president today nominated Col. Eugene Griffin, First United States volunteer, engineer, to be brigadier general, and Frederick C. Perkins, of Duluth, Minnesota, to be major general, of the land office at Durango, Colo.

HEAVY SNOWFALL.
St. Paul, Jan. 23.—A special to the Dispatch from Black River Falls, Wis., says: The heaviest snow storm of the winter has prevailed throughout this section of the state since yesterday afternoon (on inches has fallen) and the storm still continues. Traffic so far has not been seriously impeded.

AT WEST DULUTH

Fight Between S. C. Murphy and F. E. Bradley in Eighth Is Warm.

THE MASS MEETING

It Will Be Held Tomorrow—Nygren's Nomination Is a Good One.

The contest between Messrs. Murphy and Bradley for the aldermanic nomination of the first party in the Eighth ward is not only spirited but bitter. The failure of the convention delegates to agree has intensified the feeling and the chances are that if either is nominated the other will knife him at the polls unless the differences can be patched up in the meantime. The fight has degenerated into a squabble between Silver Republicans and Democrats, and those who desire to see harmony within the ranks believe that some new man should be chosen. A mass meeting of fusion voters will be held tomorrow evening at the hall. Mr. Nygren will make a strong candidate to decide upon the matter and it is probable that there will be large vote for him.

Mr. Murphy believes that he was entitled to the nomination in convention, and that the result to a mass meeting is a mistake, after the question had been decided by a full and free vote at the primaries.

The choice of S. J. Nygren as the nominee for alderman in the Seventh ward, because the Populists were united while the Democrats were divided between Messrs. Wade and Gilley. Mr. Nygren will make a strong candidate entirely acceptable to the fusion forces of the ward.

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS.
Alderman Cochran's horse ran away this morning. Turning the corner at the Phillips hotel, he continued on down the central avenue on the sidewalk and then made for his stable. No great damage was done fortunately.

Recently an item appeared in The Herald that two children, Mr. and Mrs. Glush, formerly of West Duluth, had sold for $120 a pair of pants that the report is incorrect and that both of their children are alive and well. The Herald is pleased to make the correction.

Miss Rehehn, the day operator at the west Duluth telephone exchange, is ill of the grip.

The Ladies' Club will hold a card social at the Phillips hotel, on Tuesday evening for the benefit of St. James' church. A musical program will be given and refreshments will be served.

A Ladies' Catholic Order of Foresters was organized Saturday afternoon in St. James' church.

Music at Marinette rink Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday nights.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATIC PEOPLE'S PARTY.
LACAN VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH WARD, of the city of Duluth, St. Louis County, Minn.

A mass meeting will be held in Stewart's hall, 201-22 Fifth street, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21, 1909, between 7 and 9 o'clock, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for alderman in the Eighth ward.

The instructions to the voters are: To vote for the Democratic and Populist city convention, held in the city of Duluth, on Jan. 21, 1909. All legal voters who voted at the last general election will be entitled to vote at this meeting.

JAMES CONNOR, chairman. People's Party Committee, Eighth ward.

THE COUNCIL MEETING.

Bill to Allow Furnishing Water to Superior to Be Submitted.

The council will this evening probably meet in a session to confer with the officials of the Duluth Water and Light company in regard to the purchase of the water plant at West Duluth. The matter of endorsing a bill to allow the city to supply water to Superior will be brought before the council by the mayor, who will submit a bill that he has had prepared.

It is thought that the council may take action, as recommended by the mayor, and the committee to which the telephone bids were reported said this afternoon that the committee had not yet prepared a report, and the matter would probably not go before the council this evening.

S. S. Curry Goes With Alibi.

The Marquette Mining Journal says that the E. P. Alibi company of Milwaukee, which a few weeks ago acquired two mining propositions on the Vermilion range, has secured a third of 160 acres, and has associated with itself S. S. Curry, who for many years was manager of the Norrie mine, who will have charge of the developments of its properties. They will be opened and mined the present year. The new property is known to contain iron in abundance. Negotiations are pending for the lease to another Eastern machinery manufacturer of mineral properties on the Vermilion, which will be opened and operated as soon as possible.

Third Was Already Filled.

Carroll Murphy, one of the Company A men who left some time ago to enlist with the Third United States Infantry, returned last night from St. Paul. He says he and his two companions who went with him did not have a chance to enlist, as the regiment had already been recruited up to the required number when they arrived. The Third United States will leave for New York this week when they will take transports for Manila.

"Fads, Fallacies and Facts."

Rev. W. W. Dawley, formerly of this city, but now of Minneapolis, will deliver a lecture on the interesting subject "Fads, Fallacies and Facts" at the First Baptist church next Friday evening.

HYPNOTISM BY JOCKEYS.

Theory to Account for Success of Some Riders.

During the racing season just closed there have been many occasions where the good understanding between horse and rider has been excellent results, and their owner, and there have also been cases where lack of sympathy between man and horse has lost the race to a well-ridden favorite, says the New York Sun. About the most notable case of the street of kindness was that of the 3-year-old George Keene. At the beginning of the season Keene was regarded as one of the most promising horses in his class, but he very soon brought grief to his backers, and a large discount to his owners by his untimely performances at the post. He gained the reputation of being the ugliest-discounted horse in the turf, and the better fought shy of him, but then Keene was claimed in a selling race by Sam Hirsch and immediately by his reformation began.

The next time this ill-tempered youngster appeared on the track he sported the Hildreth colors and had Claverton, one of the best lightweight jockeys on the turf, riding him. To the surprise of all and the delight of a favored few, he behaved handsomely for the first time, and with the aid of the jockey he won the race and won easily. From that time on George Keene was a favorite in about every race he entered, and won enough money for his followers to redeem his losses of the early season. From being one of the worst behaved and worst-tempered horses on turf he became thorough favorite.

Some people contend that the reason of the reformation of Keene was that his training had been changed. The authorities who study such things, and can always tell why this or that horse did or didn't win, say that it is hypnotism and not a change of training that was the cause. This jockey is always kind to his mounts, but with George Keene he was particularly careful. Ten minutes before it was time to leave the paddock for the post Claverton would stand beside his horse, talking to him and patting him in the way all properly-conditioned horses like, while when post time came he would mount and ride out to the post stroking his horse's neck and talking to him as though to a human being. The horse, on his part, seemed to like this and, instead of trying to scrape his rider off against the rail, he would prance down the middle of the track, shaking his head back at his rider, and when the whistle blew he would start off like a bat and win the race.

It is almost impossible to get anything out of a high-strung, sensitive horse with a whip and a stick and a few words and a stroke of the hand at the proper time will do more to quiet a horse than all the other means. Mrs. Claverton thought so, and she thought so and she made it. To Sloan owes a great deal of his success in the turf to his knowledge of the horse and the horse, and it is remarkable to observe how the horses remember the words of their jockey and respond to his voice and turn to look in his direction. The diminutive rider is given and taken for his own use, a whip, except when the struggle in the stretch is of the toughest character, and when the horse is in a bad way, he will use a whip without whip or spur. To endear himself to any horse in a bad way, he will use a whip without whip or spur. To endear himself to any horse in a bad way, he will use a whip without whip or spur.

Another equestrian hypnotist is Mr. J. H. Hirsch, who has been in the habit of having confidential conversations with his horses, and he has been in the habit of having confidential conversations with his horses, and he has been in the habit of having confidential conversations with his horses.

The little Irish boy stands at the top of the horse, and he has been in the habit of having confidential conversations with his horses, and he has been in the habit of having confidential conversations with his horses.

At the post, marks on his record and has almost invariably been in good position.

Doggett and Taral, who are both excellent horsemen, never have any trouble with their mounts, and it is noticeable that, though they have had a number of good horses in the season, they have never had a bad one.

CLOSELY POEPEL.

Porto Rico More Densely Populated Than the Fertile Ohio Valleys.

Spanish Law Prohibited the Exploration of Immense Gold Deposits.

"Laborers, keep away from Porto Rico." That is the common dictum of the officers of the Fourth regiment of Ohio volunteers, which but recently returned from a tour of garrison duty in that island.

But the fact that labor is so scarce in the island, that it is so difficult to get, is not the only reason why the officers of the Fourth regiment of Ohio volunteers, which but recently returned from a tour of garrison duty in that island, are so strict in their orders.

Everyone knows where Porto Rico is located. center of the island are rich with gold. Capt. Donovan, quartermaster of the regiment, still tells of a gold watch chain one of the soldiers wore, made from native gold.

It was the heaviest chain, for its size, I ever saw," declared the captain.

However, gold mining has not been carried on for years in the island, owing to the decree of the Spanish government, which forty years ago made it a capital offense to hunt for or mine gold.

Though a man might know the exact location of a hunk of gold in his back yard, by digging it up he exposed himself to the rigors of the Spanish criminal law. The government reserved the island as a natural treasure house, from which the needs of the island could be drawn, but the government reserved the island as a natural treasure house, from which the needs of the island could be drawn.

Up to the very moment of the American occupation the law restraining gold mining was still in force. Capt. Donovan tells with effect of the fact of the mining engineer who visited the island a few years ago to prospect for gold. He thought that a liberal use of coin and a strict secrecy of his purpose would insure his protection.

But one morning he was found by a trail with half a dozen bullet holes through his back. An official investigation was made, and it was reported that he had come to his death by hands unknown, because he had been too friendly with a young woman of the island.

But under the breath it was whispered that his death had been by order of the Spanish government, which dared not go through the form of trying an American for violating the law against mining for gold.

The people of the island are still very loyal to the Spanish government, and the fact that the Spanish government reserved the island as a natural treasure house, from which the needs of the island could be drawn, is still a fact.

There are the people, light mulattoes in color, and showing their African origin more or less plainly. Third comes the pure-blooded African, black as the raven, and ordinarily of a magnificent physique. Few of these people are to be seen, though there is a colony at one end of the island. Among the higher classes the people are refined and cultivated, able to talk on the topics of the day, as such topics are understood by the Spanish in blood.

They are honorable, honest, and, as a class they are a welcome addition to the subjects of the republic across the sea. Their home feeling is especially strong, and family ties seem to be regarded with a sacredness unknown among the colder-blooded races.

In the lower classes, however, morality is at a low ebb. As a priest once said to Col. Carr, there is not a good Catholic on the island, and, inasmuch as the Catholic church is the basis of the island, that means more than at first appears. This is accounted for by the admitted corruption among the island priesthood. Their parishioners have long ago lost respect for them, and pay but the slightest attention to their ministrations, except at the last resort.

Marriages are lightly held, for it costs a poor devil $20 or more to get a priest to marry him. No other marriage is legal. Therefore, common-law marriages are frequent, and common-law divorces and remarriages are of like frequency.

Generally speaking, the best order is maintained in the island. Bandits ravage the inner portion, though they are kept in check by a system of mounted guardia civil, for which the American soldiers express the most bounded admiration. These mounted guards patrol the country roads day and night, and are very efficient in their work. A long rope and a short shift is the best he gets. As a protection against the bandits the hacienda houses are furnished with heavy outside doors and shutters, which are kept closed by bolts. These bolts are closed by a key, and the key is carried by the owner. The bolts are closed by a key, and the key is carried by the owner.

Under the prevailing bluffs of oak the shivering river smokes. With drifting smoke the river flows. The salt grass river ebbs to the sea. Shivers with pain. While down the valley, below the uplifted wood.

The giant grass drifting shapes of lofty woods. The ghosts of giants weary of love and Sad, mighty spirits that have known all and pace the seaward flood.

Are fleeing, ah, God! are leaving the earth for ever. Fleeing down the valley of the dolorous river. Fleeing out forever to the dim and rainy where life, nor love, nor pain of love may.

Would that I too might go To share your peace! Would that I too might know Those vacant seas! Of regretting a voice that is hushed, and the wren at the bottom of the tree.

"STARTED WITH A COLD."

So says One of the Greatest of Americans

"It is surprising what mistakes even some of the best people in the world make."

The speaker was one of the greatest

"Take for example one of the most common things in the world, namely, a cold. People speak of 'taking cold.' There is really no such thing.

"A cold is a symptom—an effect, not a cause. Did you ever know an absolutely well and healthy person who took cold? I never have, even under the greatest exposure. Yes, indeed, a cold is a symptom, not a cause."

The gentlemen and ladies to whom the

"You may be surprised," he continued, "when I tell you that ninety-nine out of a hundred of the great organs of the body, the kidneys, are out of order."

Men and women are troubled with impure kidneys than with any other known form of disease. The unfortunate thing about it is that they do not know it is their trouble.

"Why? Because the kidney derangements and diseases of the kidneys, which come to both men and women, are without any pain; in fact, without any symptoms, and this proves just what I said at first, namely, that 'a cold is a symptom.'"

There was a great amazement upon the faces of his hearers.

"Indeed," continued the doctor, most

"Now there is but one great discovery for the relief of the sufferer from kidney difficulties—that grand remedy, Warner's Safe Cure. No class of people know or realize this better than the grip-stricken, and all classes are more ready to acknowledge it.

"Take my word, anyone who is careful upon the first approach of a cold or influenza, to take a few pills for the colds—the kidneys—will not suffer long from a cold; will not be oppressed by the grip and need have no fear of closed, will open up the system and throw the germs of disease out of the body. You can depend upon this."

FOUND IN THE LAKE

Body of Stanislaus Wies-chowski Recovered Near Second Avenue East.

DEATH WAS RECENT

Apparently Had Been In the Water But a Few Hours.

The remains of Stanislaus Wies-chowski, of 312 East Second street, were found in the lake at the foot of Second avenue east this morning. It is thought that he was drowned some time this morning. The thin ice was broken for some distance around the body, which was close alongside the dock, and the water in the open space had not begun to freeze over. His gloves and cap were floating near the body, and on the dock near by was his
bag. The body was floating face downward, with the head and shoulders above water, supported by the air and water under the coat, which was bat-toned.

The body was discovered shortly after 9 o'clock by a patrolman on work in the vicinity. The police were notified and the body was taken to the mortuary. The name given was found marked on the dead man's vest, and he was also recognized by a driver for Cox Bros. There was nothing in the pockets
but a handkerchief.

Wieschowski formerly worked on the Northwestern coal dock. He was injured while at work there some time ago and had been incapacitated for labor since. He said to have been a little queer at times. He recovered a judgment against the company on account of his injury, and is said to have spent money rather extravagantly.

He leaves a wife and several children.

THE TRIAL OF STACY.

An Effort to Dismiss the Case Was Unsuccessful.

The burglary case against George F.
Stacy was still on trial in Judge Canton's room in district court this morning, and the state rested its case shortly before noon. At that point the defendant's attorney moved to dismiss the case on the ground that no evidence had been introduced tending to show burglary on the part of the defendant. The only thing that could be said for the testimony called to order, Rex W. J.
Whipple, acting as moderator, Mr.
Whipple, after the reading of the circular containing the facts of the crime,
yet the evidence tended to make him out merely an accessory. The motion was denied, and the argument of the afternoon the defendant's case began.
The state showed through John Polom,
who was indicted with Stacy for burglary and burglary, and who pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the second degree, that the only person for which he was indicted, that Stacy accompanied him to the farm of Ole Nelson, fourth street, and helped him get the cow away, and that he shared the proceeds of the sale of the cow.

The defense theory of defense is that Stacy was home all of the night the cow was stolen, and his own testimony and that of his wife, who is being introduced to prove this. The case will not go to the jury before tomorrow.

HAYWARD GAINS TWO.

Lincoln, Jan. 23.—The legislature took one ballot for senator today. The first ballot resulted: 28, Hayward; 23, two more than he had yet received;
Weister, 10; Thompson, 7; Lamberton,
2; Reese, 2; Hildner, 1; Weston, 4; a gain of 1; Foss, 2; Adams, 1; Carnish, 1; Vanhusen, 1. It had been intended to have two ballots, but it was voted down, 74 to 64.

The Zenia club has changed the date
of its coming dance party to Thursday, Feb. 8 instead of Feb. 10 as was first announced. This will be the club's last party before Lent.

The custom house is arranging for the shipment of another lot of bonded wheat, to Duluth.

Next Tuesday evening, Jan. 31, at 8 o'clock, Brigadier General, of the United States Army, will conduct a meeting in the First Methodist church. The brass band will render Salvation Army songs and music for the meeting. Visiting soldiers and officers from other camps will be present.

The funeral of John Gundy will be held at 9 o'clock Thursday morning from the German Catholic church, 1st Third avenue east and Second street.

There was a small blaze in the office of George Bros. on the second floor of the Lycium building yesterday afternoon, the damage being about $25. The fire was caused by a lighted match held by him as he was smoking.

There is said to be a suspicion that the 9 o'clock men, who were arrested yesterday morning, were set by somebody to satisfy a grudge.

The labor leaders met last evening to discuss preparations for the exhibit at the labor bazaar in an attempt, apparently,
to work a man on the "howery." The alleged officers of their attention refused to make a complaint this morning and they were discharged.

Yesterday afternoon the case of Elmer
H. Chittenden and Mattie S. Jenkins appeared, against Patrick McElroy and others, respondents, an appeal from a judgment rendered in the municipal court at Virginia, was placed on the calendar in district court.

The court ordered judgment for them, sustaining the judgment in the lower court.

Charles Johnson and Matthew Jacobson
two alleged "big men" were arrested last night by Detective Trooper, while they were engaged in an attempt, apparently,
to work a man on the "howery." The alleged officers of their attention refused to
make a complaint this morning and they
were discharged.

BUTLER STILL STICKS.

Is Not Willing to Be Turned Adrift in Winter.

Charles Butler, the United States prisoner in charge of Sheriff Sargent, who distinguished himself some time ago by refusing to accept his liberty
when it was offered to him, is still in jail, and he still persists in refusing to leave it. He says that this is not the proper time to dislodge a man from a comfortable berth and send him forth on a cold, unfeeling world, and he seems determined to remain until milder weather. Butler was given a sentence of fine and imprisonment. He served his term of imprisonment, but was unable to pay his fine. Under the United States laws he could make a "poor prisoner's oath," and stay in jail thirty days longer in lieu of paying his fine. He refuses to take the oath, and the authorities are somewhat in doubt as to what they are to do with him.
Sheriff Sargent has no authority to recharge him without an order from the federal authorities, and they have not yet found a way to release the prisoner against his will. Butler seems to like his boarding place very well indeed, and he is going to stay as long as he possibly can.

The District Court.

Judge Ensign this morning finished hearing the stockholders' liability case of C. E. Elston, as receiver for A. L.
Newton, against the Highland Improvement company and its stockholders.
The case was taken up yesterday morning, and shortly before noon today Judge Ensign took it under advisement. There is one more court case to be heard, that of the Northern Pacific Railway company against the city of Duluth, and that will be taken up as soon as the attorneys, J. L. Washburn and City Attorney Richards, are ready.

NO MORE "PUTS" AND "CALLS."

Dealing in "Privileges" By Chicago Firms Suspended.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—The leading commission houses in this city who deal in grain refused to take orders for puts and calls today. The open board of trade also had a notice posted prohibiting dealing in the so-called "privileges."
For years this style of trading has been a very profitable business for a number of commission firms, though such trades were not recognized by the board of trade. The "privileges" trades were usually made after the close of the regular session of the board, and the business thus transacted was frequently on a very large scale.

WHY IS ELECTRIC LIGHT BEST?

Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.

HEALTHY! It has no odor. Prof. Thomson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four lights.
CLEAN! It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.
SAFE! As electric light work, no danger of suffocation.
CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illuminant.

IS HE AN IMPERIALIST?

Admiral Dewey Says England's Policy is a Great Civilizer.

London, Jan. 25.—Hamilton Brown, editor of the British Review, received a letter today from Rear Admiral Dewey dated Manila, Dec. 13, in response to a request for an expression of opinion on Great Britain's imperial policy. The admiral says:

"After many years of wandering, I have come to the conclusion that the mightiest factor in the civilization of the world is the imperial policy of England."

INDIAN VISITORS

They Take In State Senate While Passing Through St. Paul.

WORK OF SOLONS

Effort Is Made to Class Telephone Companies as Common Carriers.

FROM A STAFF REPRESENTATIVE.

St. Paul, Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—The senate session today was brief. It was announced that Senator Young's father was dead, and a resolution of condolence was passed.

Interest was added to the session by a visit from a crowd of Indian chiefs from Leech Lake, Pembina, Red Lake, Mille Lacs and other reservations, who leave this evening for Washington, where they will present to the interior department a petition for the further cutting of dead and down timber. The party is under the chaperonage of Capt. Charles Beaulieu.

Senator Benedict introduced a bill declaring telephone companies common carriers, requiring them to serve the public without discrimination, and to transmit without discrimination messages from other companies at the rate charged individuals. The bill provides that exchanges must furnish connection for any telephone company desiring them, upon the latter furnishing a written agreement to pay the customary tolls charged subscribers. The object is to establish a complete system over the state, and the companies are placed under the jurisdiction of the railroad and warehouse commission and the law of 1887 relating to common carriers.

S. F. 119, introduced by Senator Somerville, amends the law of 1887 providing for financial aid to rural schools, and provides that applications for aid must be made through county superintendents to the state superintendent.

Senator Horton introduced a bill amending the law relating to the cutting out of section 7, the words "not exceeding ten years." This will allow the annual limit of 2-1/2 acres a mill tax to continue until the $2,000,000 required for the completion of the building is raised. The bill also provides that the original estimate of $2,000,000 shall not be exceeded, and that the original estimate of assessed valuations since the capital act was passed, it has been authorized to extend the time so as to permit a reasonable opportunity for debate.

The committee supporters of the treaty will generally express the opinion that when the vote is taken the treaty will be rejected. They admit, however, there is now apparently a majority against it, but express the opinion that the vote will change from before the vote is taken.

The committee to accept a compromise on the treaty.

The senate has agreed unanimously to take a vote on the peace treaty on Feb. 6, at 3 p. m.

HOUSE JUDICIARY BILLS.

That By Laybourn Legalizing Sheriff's Certificates Is Favored.

St. Paul, Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—State Auditor Dunn sent a long communication to the house today in answer to the Lynde resolution asking for information as to attempts to sell the lands affected by the Peterson bill, reducing the interest and extending payment of the principal on public school lands and covering other points.

The house judiciary committee reported on thirteen bills, favoring amending ten, killing two and referring another. Among those favored were Wallace's bicyclist path protection bill, and that by Yale abolishing days of grace, by Laybourn legalizing certain sheriff's certificates, and one by Jacobson relating to common carriers, bringing telephone companies under control of the railroad commission.

The Fosnes divorce amendment was reported on this bill, favoring amendment, and a minority reported in favor of the bill. Fosnes explained that the only change proposed was to delete the three years' desertion provision, which had been made one year in 1895. It was placed on general order.

Wheaton's bill protecting all citizens in their civil rights was recommended by the judiciary committee for passage. It aims to allow colored men the right to buy drinks in all saloons.

The house then took up the special order, the Peterson bill to reduce the interest and extend time of payment on public school lands. Devinell opened with an argument against the bill. Jacobson argued in support of the bill, as also did McNeill, Stevens, Yale and Grandahl, while Lynde opposed it. A verbal amendment was adopted, and the roll being called the bill passed by a vote of 72 to 43.

The house then adjourned.

A MINNESOTA COUNTERFEITER.

Agent Gallagher Rounds Up the Last of a Gang.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—By the arrest of John Todd, near Morris, Ill., Secret Service Agent Gallagher has succeeded in capturing the last of a gang of counterfeiters who made their escape from the jail at Winona, Minn., over a year ago. The prisoner has been brought to Chicago and looked up in the county jail. It will not be necessary to give the man a hearing before a commissioner, as an indictment has already been returned against him in the courts of Minnesota. On being shown this indictment today, Judge Grosscup issued an order of removal, by which Todd will be taken to St. Paul tomorrow by a deputy marshal.

NOW BISHOP EDSELL.

Rev. Samuel Cook Edsell Consecrated Bishop of North Dakota.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Rev. Samuel Cook Edsell, who has long been at the head of St. Paul's Episcopal church in this city, was consecrated bishop of North Dakota today by the Rt. Rev. William E. McNeill, bishop of Illinois. The ceremony was assisted by Rev. John H. Walker, bishop of Wisconsin, and Rev. John H. Walker, bishop of Wisconsin.

The ceremony was performed in St. Paul's church in the presence of

BY OIL EXPLOSION.

Almost an Entire Family Wiped Out of Existence.

Mt. Olive, Ill., Jan. 25.—Peter Novak, a Croat, his wife and three children, have been buried by a coal oil explosion. A boy 6 years old and a babe 4 months were roasted to death. The third child died while the father's injuries are serious. The accident was caused by pouring coal oil on dead coals in a heating stove in a room where the whole family were seated.

SEVERE STORM RAGING.

Members of a Lighter's Crew Are Probably Drowned.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 25.—A severe gale is reported along the Gulf coast. The steamer Morgan, from New Orleans to Galveston, is unable to get inside the bar, and has been ordered to retreat. The lighter Santiago, Capt. Kennedy, has been beached near Galveston and is a total wreck. It is believed that eight members of the crew were drowned.

NO COMPROMISE.

Vote to Be Taken on the Peace Treaty February 6.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The senate committee on foreign relations today discussed the situation of the peace treaty in an informal way, giving special attention to the proposition that a vote should be taken immediately. There was apparently a division of opinion as to whether the opposing senators really are anxious for a vote as they professed to be, but the declaration was made by the friends of the treaty that they would not oppose to an early vote and, while no formal instruction was given, the opinion was generally expressed that an early vote should be taken.

The opinion of the treaty supporters on the committee is, however, unanimous that the committee should hold the matter of fixing the date in its hands. The committee is not instructed to press consideration, and to allow no time to be lost.

The committee decided practically to accept the proposition formulated by Senator Gore, to take a vote at the expiration of ten days of debate, but determined to hold the decision of the matter in its own hands. It was considered to extend the time so as to permit a reasonable opportunity for debate.

The committee supporters of the treaty will generally express the opinion that when the vote is taken the treaty will be rejected. They admit, however, there is now apparently a majority against it, but express the opinion that the vote will change from before the vote is taken.

The committee to accept a compromise on the treaty.

The senate has agreed unanimously to take a vote on the peace treaty on Feb. 6, at 3 p. m.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Judge Morris Gets Some Information About the Telephone Company's Claim.

FROM THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, Jan. 25.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Morris has received information from the postoffice department that puts the city of Duluth in rather bad shape to resist the demands of the telephone company that claims the right to maintain poles and wires on the streets of that city. He found that a decision had been rendered by the establishment of a suit filed by Judge Morris has not determined what action he will advise, but will take time to consider the case before giving the city officials an opinion.

Senator Nelson today presented to the senate the certificate of election of Senator Davis for the term of six years from March 4 next.

BOUGHT THE CORNUCOPIA GROUP.

Oregon Mines Sell to Eastern Men For $600,000.

Spokane, Jan. 25.—It is reported here that John A. Finch and A. B. Campbell, mining men of this city, have bought the Cornucopia group in Union county, Ore., for $600,000. Mr. Campbell will leave today for the East to arrange the final details, the property having been purchased from John Seaford, of New York. There are forty claims in the group in the Granite mining district, about seventy miles from Baker City.

TO MAKE STRAWBOARD.

The Diamond Match Company Figuring for a Plant.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 25.—A special to the Dispatch from Akron, Ohio, says: The Diamond Match company is figuring to secure control of the plant of the American Strawboard company. If the deal goes through the match company will make its own board.

WAR COMMISSION ADJOURNS.

Washington, Jan. 25.—The war commission adjourned today after several of its members were summoned to appear before the Eagan court-martial. An adjournment, therefore, was taken until tomorrow.

HAYWARD LOSES TWO.

London, Jan. 25.—Allen pulled within 1 of the full London strength in his victory today, one Papalini being absent. The following were present: Allen, 28; Hayward, 41; Webster, 10; Thompson, 7; rest scattering.

THE MONEY FOR SPAIN.

Senator Davis Would Attach Rider to Sundry Civil Bill.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator Davis, from the committee on foreign relations, has offered an amendment to the sundry civil bill appropriating $20,000,000 to pay Spain according to the terms of the treaty. The amendment has the endorsement of the committee on foreign relations.

NEW CANAL ROUTE.

J. Francis Le Baron Has a Word to Say in Explanation.

Cleveland, Jan. 25.—J. Francis Le Baron, formerly an engineer connected with the Nicaragua canal, who a few days ago announced he had discovered a route for the canal which would cost $22,000,000 less than any proposed, and which he claimed the commission refused to consider, has written a statement in which he says in part:

"My attention has been called to a published denial from a member of the Nicaragua canal commission of my assertion that I had offered to go to Washington and explain my proposed route to the commission. Such denial, coming from a member of the commission, is unaccountable, and I can only explain it by supposing that the member to whom I wrote failed to bring the matter to the attention of the board."

"When the commission was first appointed I wrote to Professor Haupt, member of the commission, and not only offered to go to Washington to explain my proposed line, but to go to Nicaragua and point out the line on the ground."

"Moreover, I have a letter in reply from the member named asking me to disclose the location of the line by letter, to which I replied that I was unwilling to do this, as I looked on the matter entirely from a professional standpoint, and while I had no route to sell, and did not ask or expect the government to pay me any commission or large bonus, I considered it no more than fair that I should be paid for my time as an engineer, and if the commission called me in consultation and I was able to indicate a line straighter and more feasible and that would effect a saving in the cost of constructing the canal of $22,000,000, or even half of it, I would expect to receive a suitable fee as a consulting engineer."

SAD STATE OF AFFAIRS.

Many Indians in New Mexico Dying From Smallpox.

Santa Fe, Jan. 25.—Late information from the Zuni Pueblo, in Western Valencia county, tells of a sad state of affairs among those Indians. Smallpox is raging with terrible results, and deaths are numerous. Since the disease broke out 217 deaths have occurred, and 600 Indians are sick, of whom possibly about half will recover.

A MURDER MYSTERY

Bodies of a Ranchman and Wife Found in a Hole.

Barr, Cal., Jan. 25.—The dead bodies of Charles X. O'Hara and his wife have been found in a hole in one corner of their ranch, near here. They had been missing for several days, and a search was instituted by the authorities here, resulting in their being found with both their skulls crushed. Frank Harold, who has been employed on the O'Hara ranch, is under arrest charged with the crime. R. J. McKeary has been arrested as an accomplice. The suspicion is that the O'Haras were murdered to secure their money, which was thought to have been received in the sale of a bunch of cattle. When the fact of Harold's arrest became known, threats of lynching were so numerous that Harold was hurriedly taken to Brighton, where he is being protected by a strong guard.

A ROMANCE REVIVED.

London, Jan. 25.—The romance of the explain of Perth has been revived by an inquiry for Lady Drummond in connection with certain property by her second cousin, Mrs. Cowdry, of Peabody avenue, West London. Lady Drummond, now Mrs. Masters, was a governess in Viscount Forth's family when she eloped with a son of Lord Drummond, who was heir to the earldom of Perth. They went to New York city, where young Drummond was employed at manual labor. A daughter was born in New York, and when the father died Lady Drummond was a waitress in an ice cream saloon on Broadway.

When the father died Lady Drummond was a waitress in an ice cream saloon on Broadway. When she married a Mr. Masters, and when last heard from they intended to go South or to California.

NO RISK IN COPPER

Expert John Stanton Thinks the Stories of General Consolidation Absurd.

CONSUMPTION LARGE

This Is the Secret of the Advance in Copper Prices.

New York, Jan. 25.—According to the official figures of copper production in the United States last year, there was an output from the Montana, Lake Superior and Arizona mining localities which exceeded that of 1897 by over 15,000 tons. The close of the year, however, notwithstanding the larger production, found stocks almost exhausted both in this country and Europe.

John Stanton, the statistician of the copper manufacturing industries, in discussing the situation, with a representative of the New York Times, took the view that higher prices must come and that still greater increases of production will be necessary to meet growing demands. Mr. Stanton said:

"While the production of copper for 1898 shows a considerable increase over that of 1897, it is by far the largest production ever made in this country, the consumption has also been very large, especially since the close of hostilities with Spain. Stocks in Europe as well as in the United States at the close of the year were unusually low, there being practically none in sight. As a consequence copper has been making very rapid advances and it has been rather hard to keep track of it for the past two weeks or so. I believe that 19 cents is a fair price for copper today and that represents the highest figure reached in many years. Consumption is so large that it looks too, as if a higher figure will be obtained."

"The peculiarity of copper's position is that during the last few years of depression the production has constantly been increasing and the demand has been steadily declining until now they have reached the lowest point ever known. The electrical industry is a very important factor in the copper business and its demand is increasing greatly. Wherever railway or other construction is going on there is always a large demand for copper, the form of brass and a variety of other articles. And as the electrical business advances by leaps and bounds it is no easy matter to tell what quantity of copper will in this way be absorbed."

"Now that a general business recovery is being felt a great stimulus has been given to the opening of new mines and the development of old properties. It is apparent that the existing mines have not capacity to furnish the quantities which will be needed in the future. Companies with good prospects of becoming producers find that their shares are eagerly sought after, and it is the general belief that for some time to come copper mining will prove profitable."

"A good deal has been said on the subject of a copper combination. It is quite possible that such a combination of certain interests may be effected, but as to a general combination or one between the very largest producers, it is simply absurd. I don't think there is any foundation for it at all. Some groups of mines have a tendency to consolidation, being owned and controlled by practically the same men, but where interests are very distinct it would be difficult to arrive at any basis by which consolidation could be carried out equitably. In my judgment there is no foundation for stories of a general copper trust or combination."

"There is no difficulty in selling copper at good prices. Everything that is offered is eagerly taken up. Those who have to sell must look upon the outlook as highly encouraging."

NEW MAIL ROUTE.

Provides for a Postal Service to the Aleutian Islands.

San Francisco, Jan. 25.—Alaskan mail facilities will be greatly extended by a contract made by the government with the Pacific Steam Whaling company, which provides for a postal service to the Aleutian Islands. Monthly mail will leave Sitka for Yakutat, Metchik, Dena, Valdez, Kodiak, Kadiak, Kiska, Adak, Unalaska, and the ports named the service will be extended by star routes to inland towns in Alaska as well as to the entire Cook's Inlet country.

The first mail to these places will leave Seattle on the steamer Excelsior about Feb. 15.

ONLY FOR RURAL CARRIERS.

The Increase of Pay Recently Announced from Washington.

Washington, Jan. 25.—A circular issued on Jan. 1 by the postoffice department stated that heretofore $600 a year would be allowed a mail carrier in the free rural delivery district. Carriers who use horses have misunderstood the circular and think it applies to them when it only relates to very few free rural delivery carriers. Letters have been received at the department from carriers in the regular service, thanking them for the increase of salary.

LOG SCALING CASE.

A Ruling Against the Surveyor General of Stillwater.

St. Paul, Jan. 25.—It makes a matter of nearly $10,000 difference in the perquisites of the surveyor general of the Stillwater district, by the decision given by the supreme court yesterday, Justice Cady writing the opinion.

The suit is brought by James S. O'Brien, surveyor general of that district, against the St. Croix Boom company, which has a special charter from the legislature authorizing it to make the oldest corporation in the state, older than the state itself. The charter was renewed by special act in 1870, requiring the surveyor general to scale the company's logs at not more than 2 cents per foot, and to certify that that amount was unconstitutionally in containing more provisions than the title carried, and the rate of 5 cents per 1000 therefore applied. As the run in 1897 amounted to $11,999,999 feet, the difference would

Gen. Greene Finds Thousands of Cubans in a Deplorable Condition.

A NATIVE SOLDIER

He Finds the Cuban Troops Well Disciplined and Very Efficient.

Washington, Jan. 25.—Assistant Secretary of War McKelvie gave out today a synopsis of Gen. F. V. Greene's report concerning the duties recently assigned to him in Cuba.

Speaking of an inspection which he made of the Cuban troops, Gen. Greene found them to be of all colors, mulatto and white. They were an all-able-bodied lot of men, although smaller in stature than Americans. They had been trained to hardship during the last three years, seemed well disciplined and so fully controlled by their officers that, although their sufferings for lack of food were great, no cases of pillage had been reported. Their equipment was wretched.

The officers impressed Gen. Greene favorably. For the most part they were intelligent, educated men, well mounted and well dressed. Gen. Greene gives it as his opinion that this force possesses the elements of a fine body of native troops, provided the officers are properly organized, equipped, and their regimental, and, possibly, battalion officers, selected from American officers.

It is his opinion that the organization of these troops should be made at the earliest possible moment, otherwise there is danger that the force may disintegrate. Under existing conditions of lack of food and clothing it will be difficult to hold them long. One of the cavalry regiments, Col. Delgado, was in his youth the most noted horseman in Cuba. He is a native of the island, and his men, under proper discipline, could be very useful as a part of the cavalry.

Gen. Greene believes that this officer and his men, under proper discipline, could be very useful as a part of the cavalry. It would be possible to get from 10,000 to 15,000 such men who would be suitable for military service. The remaining half of the Cuban forces, about 10,000 to 15,000, who are not especially adapted to the life of a soldier, and are peaceful laborers and farm hands, seemed anxious to return to their homes, but as their homes have been destroyed, their families having perished in the reconcentration, they have no money to purchase implements for farming purposes, for the time being this is impracticable. It is of the utmost urgency to provide work for these men. In Gen. Greene's opinion, money could be put immediately into the hands of the starving laboring class by employing them in the rebuilding of hospitals, asylums and public buildings.

In a few months, by concentrating the Cuban troops in the hands of the United States, they would be enabled to return to their homes and start life over. And this would be the only way to get rid of the Cuban problem. The ordinary channels of trade, which would revive the banks, from whence it could be loaned to such Spaniards as could give security for the money, would be closed. The Cuban government would be unable to repair the damage done to their plantations, and enable them also to return to their homes. KILLED IN COLLISION.

Three Railroad Men Lose Their Lives in Illinois.

Dubuque, Iowa, Jan. 25.—By a collision on the Chicago & Great Western between two freight trains at North Hanover, Ill., three men were killed and a large amount of railroad property was destroyed. An extra east-bound freight train from Chicago, which was carrying a large amount of freight, was switched, crashed into the other train. The crew of the latter saved themselves by jumping, but the other crew remained aboard and were caught in the wreck.

The crash was terrible. Both engines were completely demolished. Thirty-three cars of the west-bound train were piled in a wrecked heap, and three of its crew were killed. The dead: Alexander Thompson, engineer, Dubuque; Michael Devereaux, fireman, Dubuque; A. Vanderberg, brakeman, Chicago.

BATTLE IN BOLIVIA.

Lima, Peru, Jan. 25.—According to natives received here from the Desaguadero district, or Inter-Alpine valley, in Bolivia and Peru, a fierce battle took place on Jan. 17 at Cerro Bay, thirteen leagues from La Paz, the nominal capital of Bolivia, between the vanguard of the federalist troops, or insurgents, who now occupy La Paz, and the vanguard of the forces commanded by President Almon. The latter were defeated with the loss of a colonel and forty-three men killed. The insurgents also captured sixty prisoners. It is added that desertions from the president's troops are occurring daily.

ANTARCTIC EXPLORATION.

Berlin, Jan. 25.—The minister of the interior, Count Posadowsky-Wehner, in the course of the debate on the home office estimates in the Reichstag, said that the imperial chancellor, Prince von Hohenlohe, the imperial chancellor, was prepared to support the proposed Antarctic expedition. If the expedition proposed starting in 1901, the minister said, a decision must be speedily taken in regard to the construction of a ship, which could sell for about 1,100,000 marks. Count Posadowsky-Wehner also expressed the belief that Germany, the United States and Great Britain should act conjointly in the matter.

AGONCILLO TO HAY.

The Filipino Representative Claims His Republic Is Entitled to Recognition.

Washington, Jan. 25.—In a communication to the secretary of state, Don Felipe Agoncillo calls attention to the fact that on Jan. 1 he addressed a letter to him on the question of recognition, forwarding with it a memorandum demonstrating that according to all American precedents the Philippine republic was entitled to recognition, and in the same letter invited the attention of the United States to the natural relations of the two countries. He further calls attention to the fact that since his letter was written the very nature of the situation has changed, and that the necessity of an early and frank communication between the representatives of the two countries is imperative.

SENATOR STEWART CHOSEN.

Congressman Newlands Withdraws from the Fight in Colorado.

Carson, Nev., Jan. 25.—Senator William M. Stewart received more than enough votes in the sessions of this house and senate yesterday to assure his re-election. The withdrawal of Congressman Newlands from the fight was the surprise of the day. The bitter fight waged by the two candidates and the fact that the friends had led to the belief that the contest would be carried out into the senate. Today Stewart received 15 votes, A. C. Cleaves 12, W. W. Williams 2, in the assembly. Stewart received 15 votes, A. C. Cleaves 12, W. W. Williams 2, in the assembly.

CONY AUDITORS' BILL.

Would Increase Their Terms of Office to Four Years.

Minneapolis, Jan. 25.—The county auditors of the state gathered in the rooms of the county commission yesterday to discuss the proposed bill to increase their terms of office from two to four years. The bill is introduced by Senator Stewart. The auditors are for the most part executive, and little is given out. New legislation is given as the main business which brings them together, and they are watching St. Paul very closely. There was a good attendance, and it is hinted that the meeting is not all makeshift in its motive.

WINE OF CARDUI

COFFEY'S STATION, ALA., Jan. 1. About a year ago I became very feeble. My menses would last for three weeks at a time, and my mind became affected. I had sinking spells, and many times I thought I was gone. Finally I took three bottles of Wine of Cardui, and two packages of Black-Draught, and my health is better than it has been in 14 years. I am 49 years old, and Wine of Cardui has brought me through the Change of Life all right.

MRS. M. E. BROTHERTON.

WINE OF CARDUI

Change of Life is the most serious period in every woman's life. Many do not survive the ordeal. Those whose delicate womanly organism is weak and deranged have the most to fear. Change of Life cannot be avoided. It is part of Nature's programme. But the pains and dangers can be largely overcome if Wine of Cardui be taken faithfully. It will fortify a woman's entire system for the trial through which she must pass. It will strengthen her nerves, and modify in large part every distressing symptom. No time should be wasted. Wine of Cardui should be taken during the whole period of the Turn of Life, sometimes two or three years. The patient, if she does so, will live to a happy, peaceful old age as a reward. Wine of Cardui cures "female troubles" of every name.

WINE OF CARDUI

Change of Life is the most serious period in every woman's life. Many do not survive the ordeal. Those whose delicate womanly organism is weak and deranged have the most to fear. Change of Life cannot be avoided. It is part of Nature's programme. But the pains and dangers can be largely overcome if Wine of Cardui be taken faithfully. It will fortify a woman's entire system for the trial through which she must pass. It will strengthen her nerves, and modify in large part every distressing symptom. No time should be wasted. Wine of Cardui should be taken during the whole period of the Turn of Life, sometimes two or three years. The patient, if she does so, will live to a happy, peaceful old age as a reward. Wine of Cardui cures "female troubles" of every name.

WINE OF CARDUI

COFFEY'S STATION, ALA., Jan. 1. About a year ago I became very feeble. My menses would last for three weeks at a time, and my mind became affected. I had sinking spells, and many times I thought I was gone. Finally I took three bottles of Wine of Cardui, and two packages of Black-Draught, and my health is better than it has been in 14 years. I am 49 years old, and Wine of Cardui has brought me through the Change of Life all right.

REPORT IS AGREED ON

Committee Makes Recommendations For Amending Forfeited Tax Law.

AS TO ASSESSMENTS

Lien of Municipality on Property Is Not to Be Affected By Sale.

The forfeited tax law committee, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, practically decided upon its report. The recommendation will, substantially, be that section 5 of the present law be amended to provide that nothing contained in the act shall be construed to affect the lien of any municipality for assessments for local improvements, whether in judgment or not, and that a supplementary act be passed authorizing the common council to reduce and rebate assessments where in its judgment it is to the interest of the city to do so.

This leaves all city assessments unaffected by the forfeited tax law sale. The danger of discouraging bids when the assessments are equal to or greater than the value of the property is obviated by the power given the council to reduce them. It was thought better to make such a provision, leaving it to the council to decide the reduction on the merits of each case, than to provide for reduction according to a flat rate of a certain percentage of the assessment.

The committee does not favor giving the city power to bid at the sale for the reason, in the first place, that it is understood that no bill can be passed that does not provide for paying the state its share of the tax in cash. The amount due the state from the forfeited tax list is $65,000, and it is estimated that the city would have to pay the state at least $20,000 to protect the assessments on particular lots. There is no provision for the appropriation of any money for this purpose by the city, and the committee has been assured that no bill could pass that provided that the state should wait for its share until the lands had been disposed of by the city. Another consideration that had weight with the committee was that bids would be discouraged because of the advance that the city would have in not having to advance any money. The result would, it was feared, be that the lands would be removed from the taxable list and further efforts be necessitated to get rid of them.

On the question of repeal, aside from the great difficulty, if not impossibility of accomplishing it, the committee was confronted with the danger that the law might be left in unsettled state, thus causing litigation. It will be decided on the mayor's return from St. Paul tomorrow morning whether a special meeting of the council shall be called in order to consider the report this week.

REBUILD THE ORR.

Repairs on Wrecked Steamer Will Amount to Reconstruction.

It has been practically decided to begin work on the steamer Arthur Orr, and operations will begin within a very few days. The work will be done by the American Steel Barge company at the dry dock in which the Orr is now stationed. The job will be a big one, amounting to almost as much as would the building of a new boat. The principal work to be done is the putting in of a new section. The Orr is 26 feet long and will, with the new middle section, be made 33 feet long.

Sections this new section there is a great deal of repair work to be done as the result of the pounding the Orr received when she was aground. Two hatchways will have to be put in. The boat is of steel and she will have to be cut in two, pulled apart, and the new hatchways and sections put in while she is in this state. The Orr will also be given a thorough overhauling from top to bottom inside and out. She is very badly battered up, and it is estimated that fully 100 new plates will have to be put on in different places. A new stern frame will also have to be put on. The total cost of the repairs and improvements will probably be around the $100,000 figure.

THE WORK

OF CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 25.—At the beginning of today's session of the senate, Mr. Hale, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, reported the naval personnel bill and gave notice that the earliest time possible he would call it up for consideration.

Mr. Callom reported the legislative appropriation bill, and announced that probably he would call it up tomorrow. Mr. Cockrell, of Missouri, offered a resolution directing the secretary of the interior to furnish the senate with full information concerning the old settler Cherokees, with whatever recommendations the secretary might desire to make.

Mr. Chandler, of New Hampshire, introduced a bill temporarily creating the office of admiral of the navy. It was referred to the naval affairs committee.

Senate bill, providing for the erection of a building in this city for the department of justice, at a cost of $1,000,000, was passed.

Bills were passed as follows: Amending section V of the act approved June 10, 1880, governing the immediate transportation of dutiable goods without appraisements; directing the secretary of the treasury to donate one set of life saving apparatus to the United States society for saving life from shipwreck, and extending the time for the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river at Booneville, Mo., by the Booneville and Howard City Bridge company.

The senate then, at 12:50 p. m., on motion of Mr. Davis, chairman of the foreign relations committee, went into executive session.

At 1:40 p. m. the senate resumed the open session.

ARMY BILL DISCUSSED. The house today resumed the debate on the army reorganization bill. Saturday, Feb. 18, was set aside for the delivery of eulogies upon the late Representative Northway, of Ohio.

Mr. Gibson (Rep.) of Tennessee, was the first speaker today. He advocated the passage of the bill, and in the course of his remarks he argued that it was too soon for us to decide upon a permanent policy regarding the Philippines. Our present policy should be to delay until we had thoroughly investigated the situation.

Mr. Johnson (Rep.) of Indiana, then took the floor in opposition to the bill. As he arose the Democrats applauded him, and members squared themselves around in anticipation of some sensational utterances.

Mr. Johnson concluded at 2:30 and Mr. Deliver took the floor for an hour to reply to him.

THE REPUBLICANS WIN.

N. B. Scott Is Elected Senator From West Virginia.

Charleston, W. Va., Jan. 25.—N. B. Scott was elected United States senator today in joint assembly. Scott received 48 votes, McGraw 46 and Goff 1; necessary to election, 48; one seat in the senate and one in the house vacant. Hunt voted for Blizard first and afterwards changed to Scott. The announcement was received with the wildest applause. Both the house and senate today accepted the resolution postponing action in all fairly contested cases until Feb. 7, and suspending Senator Parker in the meantime. This is the result of an agreement between the two parties, and leaves the Republicans a majority of three on joint ballot.

Secretary Miller says that a more favorable showing, both as to the number of cases and the percentage of deaths, than has been made in any but a very few cities in the country.

Golden Star Meeting.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Golden Star Mining and Exploration company was held today and the following directors were elected: A. C. Hubbs, Thomas A. McLean, Louis A. Hall, Louis Hall, W. H. T. Hughes, Thomas Bailey and A. E. McManus. A per cent dividend was declared, payable Feb. 15. The statement showed an output of $25,000 between Nov. 15 and Jan. 15. The capital is $1,000,000.

DAVID TUCKER, of St. Paul, will skate a half-mile race with D. N. McLean, at the UNION RINK, Friday evening, Jan. 27. The race will be for the City band, everybody skate before and after the race. Season tickets will be accepted.

Dr. Gunsaulus Not Coming.

Word was received today that Dr. Gunsaulus, of Chicago, who was to lecture here tonight, is ill and cannot come. There will therefore be no lecture this evening. A later date will be made for him. Dr. Hillis will lecture here on Feb. 15.

The Populist Committee.

The People's party city committee has been appointed by W. E. McEwen, chairman of the People's party convention, and a meeting called for 7 p. m. tomorrow, at the city hall, to effect organization. The committee is as follows: Members-at-large—W. E. McEwen, J. K. Wrightman and C. O. Christensen. Ward committeemen: First, George Hawkesworth; Second, J. A. Gilre; Third, John P. Mason; Fourth, Charles Levee; Fifth, C. H. Lunell; Sixth, Joseph Schweiger; Seventh, H. P. Jackrell; Eighth, A. D. McGill.

Twentieth Century Club.

The Twentieth Century club will hold a general meeting at the club rooms in the Torrey building at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. The classes in current events and reading will hold their first sessions. The president of the club will be there to answer all questions and to organize music, French and German classes for the following week.

Look For a Hot Time.

The Republicans are expecting a hot time at the primary. The fourth precinct of the fifth ward tonight and tomorrow night will be the scene of a hot time. The primary will be held at 35 West Michigan street.

THE SENATE PROTESTS AGAINST THE CONGRESSMAN.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 25.—The senate today adopted a resolution protesting against allowing Roberts, the newly-elected congressman from Utah, to hold his seat in that body.

THE COIN RATE.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—The Central Traffic association people have extended their 15-cent rate on corn to include Iowa as well as Nebraska. The rate formerly applied only to corn originating west of the Missouri river. Under the new arrangement it includes all corn west of the Mississippi river.

THE MANAGER IS HERE.

Naphtha Lighting Concern Wants a Settlement From the City.

Manager Hogan of the Globe Light and Heat company, which supplies the naphtha lamps, is in the city to try and obtain a settlement of the dispute over the company's bills for the last quarter, payment of which in full is refused by the city on the ground of defective service. Mr. Hogan met the council committee on naphtha and President Smith of the board of public works this morning to discuss the matter. Mr. Hogan manifested a desire to compromise. It is thought that an agreement can be arrived at, although nothing definite was decided on at the conference.

THINKS HE IS DYING.

Peculiar Mania With Which C. A. Carlson Is Afflicted.

C. A. Carlson was brought to the county jail from St. Mary's hospital yesterday afternoon. Information of insanity having been filed against him by one of the employees of the hospital. He was to be examined in probate court this afternoon. He expressed great indignation this morning when, upon his asking what he had been brought there for, he was told that he was suspected of being insane. All that the matter with him, he said, was that he was very sick. "If I had as much health as I have now," he told one of the deputies, "I would be all right. Inquiry at the hospital is that he is ill when as a matter of fact he is perfectly healthy physically. He has been at the hospital for several days insisting that he was dying, and when the attendants failed to discover any ailment they turned him over to the probate court."

Crawford Is Strong.

It is said that Walter Thompson may not accept the Boulton nomination in the fifth ward. Alex Crawford of one of the leading candidates in this ward will be a formidable competitor of others who seek the honor. He is making a strong canvass for it.

THE DRY GOODS CASE.

Details of the Decision Filed Recently By Judge Moor.

Judge Moor has filed his findings in the case of Luther Mendenhall against the stockholders of the Duluth Dry Goods company, adjudging the stockholders to be liable for the debts of the corporation. He finds that the company quit business in 1896, that it is insolvent and has no assets. It was capitalized at $250,000 with shares at $100 each, and stock to the amount of $150,500 was issued. The indebtedness amounts to $10,500; W. J. Johnson, $41,910.40; O. P. Stearns estate, $4000; State bank of Tower, $2300. The indebtedness amounts to $87,717.76, and it is to be divided among the stockholders according to the amount of their holdings. Executions are to be issued under the direction of the court, and where parties are both creditors and stockholders the judgment against them is to constitute a lien on the amount due them as creditors. The stockholders are found liable in the following proportions: C. C. Prindle, $1000; B. E. Wells, $5000; W. L. Stone, $2500; Richardson, Day & Co., $500; G. G. Hartley, $5000; J. A. Willard estate, $5000; Albert Harrington, $2500; Coffin & Warner, $2500; J. H. Ware, $500; G. H. Ware, $500; H. H. Hartford, $2500; John McKinley, $2500; Luther Mendenhall, $15,000; Mendenhall & Hoopes, $5000; W. E. Maybaw, $1000; Warren Mendenhall, $1000; C. H. Graves, $2500; Sarah L. Ames, $2000; Walter Van Brunt, $2500; C. C. Teare, $1000; L. K. Dekerman, $2500; Victor Stearns, $100; O. P. Stearns estate, $5000; M. B. Harrison estate, $5000.

Large Mortgage Filed.

A mortgage was filed in the office of the register of deeds yesterday afternoon covering parts of nearly 800 acres of land in St. Louis and Lake counties. The amount for which the mortgage is given is $25,000, and it is made by W. P. Wheelan, of Necedah, Wis., to Jere D. Wettor, of Grand Rapids, Wis. The description of the property covered by the mortgage covers a third interest in 780 acres in the following sections: Section 15-24-11; sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15-24-12; section 2-28-10; section 14-28-10; sections 5, 7, 15, 20, 30-53-11; section 35-53-10; sections 25 and 26-53-12; sections 4, 8, 9, 10-56-7; sections 6, 7, 8-62-21; sections 11 and 12-62-21; section 12-62-22; it also covers all of eighty acres in section 15-24-4, and all the pine on forty acres in section 15-24-11.

Important Marine Case.

The Australia-Maida collision case is on call in the United States district court in Cleveland for tomorrow. The case is an important one. Involving damages amounting to nearly if not quite $50,000. The collision, it will be remembered, occurred on May 21 last year, in the Hay lake out at Little Rapids. The two craft were in tow of each other, and were passing when the accident took place. The Australia, receiving the worst of the encounter. It is the only big admiralty suit arising from a collision in the river since the Choctaw-Waldo accident in 1886.

WHY IS ELECTRIC LIGHT BEST?

Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.
HEALTHY! It has no odor. Prof. Thomson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four adults.
CLEAN It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.
SAFE As electric bell work, no danger of suffocation.
CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illuminant.

MORE MAILS TO HAVANA.

Government Makes a Contract With the Plant Line.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Instead of two mails a week to Havana, as under Spanish rule, there will be, after next Monday, five, the government having made a contract with the Plant line of steamers for five sailings. The new arrangement will place all points east of the Missouri river within sixty hours of Havana, there being no changes of cars between St. Louis, Chicago, Boston, New York and other terminal points. Havana is the distributing point for Cuba, and the increased number of mails will, of course, lessen the time to all other points on the island.

TESTING A NEW STEAMER.
Philadelphia, Jan. 26.—The new Ward

A PORTION RETURNED.

Two Sensations Connected With a London Bank Robbery.

London, Jan. 26.—The robbery of over £20,000 from Parry's bank in this city on Monday last, which has been the sensation of the week, took a dramatic turn today, when the chairman of the bank announced at a meeting of the shareholders that £10,000 in the biggest notes had been returned to the bank by post.

PIG IRON BOUNTY

Duluth Delegation Will Introduce a Bill Giving 50 Cents a Ton.

GROSS EARNINGS TAX

Bill For Division Meets More Favor Than Was Generally Expected.

From a Staff Representative.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The St. Louis county delegation has decided to introduce a bill providing for a bounty on pig iron manufactured in the state of Minnesota in the house and senate tomorrow. Senator Daugherty will offer the measure in the senate and Representative Laybourn in the house. At a conference of the delegation held yesterday afternoon it was concluded that 50 cents a ton should be asked for. It is a fact that quite a number of members of the legislature have expressed themselves as being favorable to the bill and, while at this early date it is not possible to make an intelligent prediction as to its probable fate, the Duluth members are generally of the opinion that its passage is not by any means impossible.

The delegation at its conference yesterday considered a number of bills of interest to Duluth, but took no definite action on any. Among them were one providing for bounty on pig iron. It was the consensus of opinion that bills to be successful should be drawn as briefly and simply as possible and that care should be taken that Duluth measures should in no way interfere with St. Paul and Minneapolis. It is evident that the proposed bill for the division of the gross earnings tax will meet with more favor than its Duluth promoters had reason to expect and if it is pushed vigorously it may have an excellent chance of its passage.

FOR CRANE LAKE ROAD.

W. G. Bonham of Tower Seeks a State Appropriation.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. G. Bonham, of Tower, is in St. Paul today in the interest of legislative matters of importance to Tower and other range towns. He will endeavor to secure favorable consideration of a bill appropriating $10,000 for the improvement of the Vermilion range road, in order that the means of communication between Tower and the Rainy Lake gold fields may be made easier.

A draft of such a bill is now in the hands of Senator Daugherty. It names the commissioners who will have charge of the expenditure, and before being introduced it will undergo changes in placing the appointive power with the governor.

Mr. Bonham said that the people of Tower objected to having the county commissioners superintend the work, as they felt they had not the possible results out of the money they had already expended on the road.

The measure in question, Bonham and the business men of the range are particularly interested in one for the regulation of mining in towns outside of cities and villages. In the majority of the iron mining districts on the Mesaba Vermilion ranges the mines are located outside of the villages and the miners live beyond the municipal boundaries. Residents of all classes and descriptions rely their trade at the miners' homes and make great inroads on the business of merchants adjoining villages. Mr. Bonham will endeavor to secure legislation which will curtail this evil. A bill intended to accomplish this purpose was passed at a former session, but as it exempted milk and certain other products it was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court, which held it to be class legislation.

BENTNER SEES LIND.

But Receives Small Information as to His Chances.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Bentner, of Proctor, who is a candidate for appointment to the position of executive agent of the fish and game commission, was at the capital yesterday and made a visit to the governor. His interview was exceedingly brief and he was given little information as to his chances in the situation. He left last night for Winona and will return to St. Paul soon for another interview.

FOSS THE WINNER.

Attempt of Committee to Selve His Bill Defeated.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Foss bill to tax mortgages, which was the amended Fossman bill killed last week, was reported adversely from the committee on taxation in the house today. Foss tried to overcome the committee's action, moving to place the bill on general orders and subsequently in favor of his bill, arguing against double taxation of the owner of mortgaged lands, claiming that the owner for money was given special privileges and exemptions. Chairman Laybourn of the taxation committee adversely denied the suggestion. Foss motion that his bill had not been fairly treated by explaining that the adverse action of the committee was almost unanimous, and argued briefly and emphatically in favor of supporting the committee's action. McNell spoke for the committee, and Fossman took the floor in favor of the bill. Although and Grondahl were in the place on general orders for further consideration, the Foss plea for a majority was successful. The bill was successful, his motion being adopted, 52 to 11.

The Fossman anti-pass and Fossman bill was adversely reported from the railroad committee, and Fossman tried to overcome the report. The bill fixes passenger rates at 25 cents per mile for adults and 15 cents for children under 12 years, and prohibits the issue of all passes to state officials. Jacobson advised the adoption of the motion. Staples agreed with Jacobson, and recommended a change in the rules to provide for regular revision of all committee reports. He spoke sarcastically of the action of the house on the Foss committee, saying that the reversal of the report came from the personal solicitation of Foss, and because of a misunderstanding of the purpose of the house committee. After some further discussion the roll was called, and the motion to revise the committee was lost—21 to 7—and the report was adopted. Gatterson, who had voted with Foss to reverse the committee on taxation on the mortgage bill, moved to reconsider that vote and his motion carried. Another roll call on the Foss motion to place his bill on general orders was then taken, and the reversal was continued. The Foss motion being adopted, 44 to 25.

Schurman introduced a resolution for a joint committee to investigate the board of control idea. It was committed.

Among the new bills were the following:

Wheaton—Prohibiting saloon free lunches.

Morris—Amending fishing law prohibiting use of lights in catching fish.

Foss—Appropriating $10,000 for Minnesota Sugar company for sugar beet bounty.

Waters—Appropriating $10,000 for roads and other improvements in Itasca state park.

Pope—Appropriating $1000 annually for the Minnesota Forestry association.

Galt—Fixing jurors fees at $2, with 10 cents mileage.

McCollum—Regulating mutual life insurance companies.

Davis, by request—Amending general statutes relating to civil actions.

Davis, by request—To amend general statutes relating to disqualification of actions.

Davis, by request—To legalize certain mortgage foreclosures heretofore made.

Northrup—To provide lien on grain for threshers.

Hughes—Requiring shells and sheller for livestock at all stations where stock is received.

Haugen—Requiring daily passenger service on all branch lines of railways.

WORK OF THE SENATE.

Committees Favorably Recommend Two Bills of Duluth Members.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—Senator Underwood, under suspension of the rules, secured the passage of his bill authorizing the publication of legal notices and tax lists in legal papers which have been consolidated with other papers under a new name. The bill is to protect the Rochester Post and Record and Union, which are to be consolidated and continue publication under a new name.

New Senate bills.

McKellicott—Petitions for removal of county seats.

Horton—Appropriating $1000 to pay commission to purchasers at sale of binding time at state prison.

Ryder—Relating to expenditure of county funds.

Knutvold—Appropriating $250.00 for the widow of the late Judge Whytock.

The following bills were recommended to pass by committees.

Hawkins—To legalize certificates issued on mortgage foreclosures sales.

Baldwin—Relating to purchasers at judicial or foreclosure sales of real estate in the payment of taxes, assessments and insurance premiums becoming delinquent during the period of redemption.

At a mass meeting of women at Quetta yesterday, the paper adds, the business of the paper was devoted to the consideration of the petition Auzinaldo for permission to take men's names in defense of independence, and to bear arms if necessary.

Paterno was asked for, and it appears, he had granted permission of "taking a prominent place in the line of battle against the Americans."

An American sentry this evening killed a captain of Filipino artillery at the Tonto outpost. As a result the natives were alarmed and fled, and denounces it as a cowardly assassination.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 21, five Filipinos, determined to have revenge for their captain's death, attempted to enter our lines. An American sentry killed one of them, who was armed with a revolver. After an exchange of shots the others fled. The incident has intensified the excitement here.

The Malina cabinet yesterday insisted upon the liberation of the Spanish civil prisoners, in commemoration of the proclamation of the Filipino republic, and also donated money to the native clergy. A decree to that effect was signed. The Spanish clergy, however, remain prisoners.

An elaborate program has been arranged for the formal ratification of the constitution today.

Nothing was accomplished at the conference here yesterday, and it is rumored that the Filipinos, with their next meeting, will give the Americans eight days in which to decide to their demands for recognition. The rumor is discounted.

SECRETARY ALGER TESTIFIES.

Says He Was Never Interested in Army Contracts.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Secretary Alger today appeared before the war investigating committee and denied positively that he ever, directly or indirectly, had been interested in any army contracts or in the purchase of supplies for the army during the Spanish war. All complaints had been investigated and he had been found to be innocent. There were only those inseparable from suddenly creating a party.

A TRAGIC ENDING

Former Attorney General Garland Stricken Down in Supreme Court Room.

THE ATTACK FATAL

He Dies Within Ten Minutes Notwithstanding Efforts For His Relief.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Former Attorney General Augustus H. Garland was stricken with apoplexy while addressing the United States supreme court at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon and died within ten minutes.

The occurrence came with startling and tragic unexpectedness, changing the usual calm and dignity of the court into temporary confusion, while the dying man was carried from the chamber in a futile effort to alleviate his condition.

When the court convened at noon Mr. Garland resumed an argument in the case of Towson vs. Muncie, which had begun yesterday. There was a full bench with the exception of Justices Brewer and White. Mr. Garland spoke calmly and with no evidences of agitation or effort. He had read from a law volume and had followed with the sentence: "This, your honors, is my contention."

As the last word was uttered Mr. Garland was seen to raise his hand and then gasp. He tottered and fell sideways, striking against a chair and overturning it as he fell heavily to the floor. A succession of loud, deep gasps came from him as he lay on the floor. His associate in the case, Franklin Mackey, was at once by his side, and with other counsel and officials at the head of the dying man was raised, his shoes removed and a draught of water given him. A deathly pallor had overspread his face, and this soon gave place to a deep purple, which foretold the gravity of the attack. He was carried from the chamber across to the room of Chief Clerk McKenney, and there placed on a sofa.

Senator Gallinger, who is a physician, was next at the bedside. He told him that the attack would be fatal. Within ten minutes from the time of the stroke Mr. Garland was dead. The court in the meantime had postponed the case in which Mr. Garland was the plaintiff. The case in which the attack was known had proceeded with other business. Word of the tragedy was brought to the court by the capitol, and senators and representatives hurried to the court room.

Two Arkansas senators, Mr. Berry and Mr. Jones, were among the first to view the body, and following them a long line of persons high in legislative and legal circles who had been associated with Mr. Garland at various times in his long and notable public service.

QUAY LACKS FOURTEEN.

Another Vote Taken in the Pennsylvania Senatorial Contest.

Harrisburg, Jan. 26.—Result of eighth ballot for United States senator: Quay, 103; Jenks, 81; Dalzell, 15; Stone, 7; Stewart, 6; Huff, 6; Irvin, 3; Tubbs, 2; Gentry, 1; Marland, 1; and 14 votes were cast for the remainder of the ticket. The vote was as follows: Quay, 103; Jenks, 81; Dalzell, 15; Stone, 7; Stewart, 6; Huff, 6; Irvin, 3; Tubbs, 2; Gentry, 1; Marland, 1; and 14 votes were cast for the remainder of the ticket.

MYSTERY CLEARING.

The Adams Poisoning Case Is Likely to Be Quickly Solved.

New York, Jan. 26.—The Evening Journal says today: A private letter box, in the name of H. C. Barnett, was rented at No. 257 West Forty-second street under circumstances similar to the renting of a private letter box at No. 1629 Broadway in the name of "H. Cornish."

In answer to a letter signed "H. C. Barnett" to Von Mohl & Co., of Cincinnati, a sample box of pills was sent to this address. These pills were the same kind as a man using the name of H. C. Barnett had ordered from the same firm. The handwriting of the letter ordering the pills signed H. C. Barnett is the same as that signed H. Cornish, and both were written by the same person who addressed the poison package to Henry Cornish at the Knickerbocker Athletic club. The deduction is inevitable that the poisoner in each case used the name of his intended victim to shield himself. The most sensational feature of this discovery is that the letter signed "H. C. Barnett" was written last May, indicating that the plot to murder Barnett and Cornish was formed months ago, and with a deliberation that is appalling, perfected by bit by bit. Months passed before Barnett received the fatal package of poisoned medicinal powder at the Knickerbocker Athletic club. In that time the murderer had evidently changed his plan, deciding to use powders instead of pills. Still, it is odd that when, after having a single victim, he was arranging to poison Cornish, he ordered the same kind of pills. It is plain that he still thought that the pill, properly poisoned, would make an effective secret weapon of death.

The central fact of the murderer is clearly revealed by this new discovery. It was in the name of the chosen victim to order some sample of proprietary medicine, in one case Kutnow's powder, in the other the pills, to intercept the package, put poison in the medicine and then mail it under the guise of a sample box sent out by the firm to the person he wanted to kill.

AN OLD RACE TRACK.

One at Lexington to Be Sold For Town Lots.

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Charles Green, a prominent real estate man and formerly president of the St. Louis Fair association, left over the Big Four for Lexington, Ky., today, to sell at public auction the famous Lexington race track, operated by the Kentucky Racing association. The track has existed for eighty-six years, and is said to be the oldest racing course in America.

Ten years ago the organization operating the track became financially embarrassed, and Mr. Green came to its aid with a loan of $20,000. That indebtedness has now run up to nearly $50,000. Green foreclosed upon the property two years ago, and now goes to Lexington to sell it out in four lots.

CRUSHED BY A ROCK.

Seriously Injured.

Staubenville, Ohio, Jan. 26.—The home of Daniel Burns at the north end of this city has been crushed by a huge rock weighing about 100 tons, which loosened from the top of a hill and rolled down with frightful force. It crushed one end of a loaded gondola car on a siding and twisted the track out of shape. Mr. Burns was buried under the debris and his wife was seriously injured. Their only sleeping quarters, was carried off his bed along with the roof's disintegration of eighty feet and considerably injured.

SIR KNUTE NELSON.

He Is Decorated With the Swedish Order Knight of St. Olaf.

Christiania, Jan. 26.—United States Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, the American commissioner to the Bergen exposition, and O. A. Thors of Chicago, have been granted knights of St. Olaf.

TERRIFIC GALES.

Great Damage to Shipping and Villages in the South Sea.

Victoria, Jan. 26.—The steamer Avon from Australia brings the details of the terrible cyclones which swept the South seas about the middle of December, devastating villages, wrecking shipping and causing many deaths. At Samarai in New Guinea, on Dec. 11, the gale was terrific. Great rains went down by torrents and were carried to sea. Torrents of rain fell. Twelve vessels were wrecked. The cutter Mayflower and Nabua were driven to Basilein. The Koalas, Belem and Italan were lost off Goodenough island. Mr. Kennedy, manager of the New Guinea Development company, was drowned, together with his wife, save one boy. The mission steamer Albert McLean, went ashore and the St. Lawrence and the cutter Pleasant were totally wrecked at Wedau. The cutter St. Lawrence was smashed at Glenelg. The schooner Ellen Gowan and the cutter St. Lawrence were lost in the coast.

In the Solomon islands the hurricane did most damage, whole villages being destroyed. Two of the two Kaukas plantations were uprooted and yam patches leveled. Over 300 persons are reported to have been killed. Capt. Peacock of the yacht St. Aubin, who brought news of the disaster to Sydney, says he saved a woman who was to have been killed as a sorcerer, she being accused of having caused the hurricane. He bought her, the purchase price being $100, and took her to another island, where she was released.

THE CLANS GATHER

Republicans Open Their City Convention at the City Hall.

THE ORGANIZATION

Judge Gearhart Is Elected Chairman and G. M. Prudden Secretary.

The clans began gathering at the city hall early for the Republican city convention this afternoon. The unsettled situation in several of the wards was evidenced in the number of anxious faces to be seen, and the earnest whispered discussions in the corners and about the hallways. W. S. McCormick was on hand early, with his company smile on, being introduced around by A. P. Cook. He seemed to make a good impression.

Of course there was Tom Clark, and Victor Dash was on hand. Judge Gearhart beamed from a corner, and beside him sat Ben Howard, Jimmy Dingwall was the center of a crowd of youngsters, distilling political wisdom. The convention was called to order shortly after 2 o'clock by Chairman George C. of the city committee. After a tilt between Mr. Crandall and Ben Howard as to the method of procedure, the temporary organization was proceeded with.

N. A. Gearhart was nominated for temporary chairman by Ben Howard and was elected. Judge Gearhart said that he hoped they would act as Republicans, and that if they did, all things would be conducted decently and in order. An earnest lesson of the prevailing idea of decency and order was then given by four delegates jumping up and simultaneously making the names of four candidates for temporary secretary. The man who nominated G. M. Prudden, called out the name of Prudden's name was the only one that could be distinguished. He was voted on and declared elected.

The credentials committee reported and resolutions were as follows: Credentials, C. C. Teare, Charles E. O. Luxen, H. Milnes, Walter Thompson, O. Farrington, N. N. Oie, W. J. Smart.

Resolutions, J. D. Holmes, Victor A. Dash, A. J. Milnes, H. B. Bragg, H. A. Wing, M. McElvire, S. C. Warren, George Cruikshank.

The credentials committee reported no contests. On motion of Ben Howard the temporary organization was made permanent.

STRANGE WEDDING.

On New Year's day at the small village of Trail, in the colony of Amish people twelve miles north of this city, occurred one of the most remarkable weddings in the history of Ohio. Four sisters were wedded to four brothers at the same hour and place and by the same preacher, relates a correspondent of the Chicago Chronicle in Cana Dover, Ohio.

The four brides are the daughters of James Hochstetler, a steady-going and well-to-do farmer with considerable wealth and extensive lands to his credit. He seems to look upon the marrying off of his daughters successfully as a grand success. A few amendments have been made to the bill, but not such as to change the character of the measure.

The shipping bill, providing a system of bounties for American ships, was favorably acted on today by the house committee on merchant marine and fisheries. The vote was on party lines, the Democratic members opposing a report by the committee.

Mr. Payne, of New York, will make the committee report, and a minority report will also be made.

THE STORM GENERAL.

The Worst Blizzard of the Year at Frazer, Minn.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—A special to the Dispatch from Frazer, Minn., says: A heavy snow storm visited this section yesterday afternoon and evening, and from 7 o'clock on became the worst blizzard of the year, continuing all night and this morning, but is abating now.

A special to the Dispatch from Easton, Minn., says: The most severe wind storm of the season began at 9 o'clock last night, and a blizzard has prevailed since. The thermometer is 10 degrees below zero and still going down. Yesterday it registered 40 above.

A special to the Dispatch from Fergus Falls, Minn., says: The mercury is below this morning. The wind last night was fearful. The snowfall is light.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR BIRTHDAY.

Boston, Jan. 26.—President F. E. Clark, D.D., of the United Society of Christian Endeavorers, has sent a birthday message to Christian Endeavorers in anticipation of the 15th birthday of Christian Endeavor, Thursday, Feb. 2, in which he urges the members to "raise the standard."

THE PEOPLE DISAPPOINTED.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Jan. 26.—The fact that the United States armored cruiser Brooklyn did not enter port here after appearing off Charlotte Amalie on Sunday last was a great disappointment to the people here. The pilot, who informed the Brooklyn that the health regulations provided that she would be quarantined for fourteen days, which is said to have made the warship return to Cuba, is blamed for his unauthorized action. It is added that there is no doubt the Brooklyn would have been visited by the doctor if she had entered the harbor.

FATHER OF A PUGILIST.

San Francisco, Jan. 26.—Isidore Boyan, father of Joe Boyan, the pugilist, is dead. He was 64 years of age. He was the editor of a Jewish paper, Public Opinion.

THEY ARE DELIGHTED

People of Guines, Cuba, Give Gen. Lee a Rousing Reception.

HE TALKS TO THEM

Explaining the Attitude of the United States Government Toward Them.

New York, Jan. 26.—A special from Havana says: Gen. Lee had returned to camp from a trip to the southeastern part of the province, ending at Guines, which is the next largest town after Havana. The journey to Guines was made with a team of mules along the highways, and the return by rail. The installation of the Fourth Illinois preceded Gen. Lee and was accompanied there in his arrival. A battalion of the Second Louisiana reached Guines before his departure. The American troops were welcomed everywhere, and their presence was made the occasion of demonstrations.

Gen. Lee received an enthusiastic reception at Guines. Insurgent troops escorted him and the town was decorated with American and Cuban flags. A public reception was given in the council chamber, of which Gen. Lee took advantage to explain his functions, as military governor of the province. He said he was exercising functions which pertained to a temporary military occupation; that the American soldiers came as friends; that there was no intention on the part of the United States government to interfere with the Cubans in the management of their island; that its only purpose was to carry out the pledge of maintaining order and to assist in the administration until the time when the people were ready to declare for themselves what their wishes were. He counseled tolerance of all classes toward one another, and complimented the community on the good order which had been preserved.

Gen. Lee also explained how rationing was being distributed by division of the province. He said that the rationing was fully understood, and the American authorities hoped to adapt measures for permanent relief. He counseled tolerance to see the establishment of agricultural banks. Personally he favored making a loan of oxen and seed to the people, so that they could put in next season's crop.

Regarding local affairs, Gen. Lee said it was the policy of the American authorities to have the towns select as far as possible their own officials by getting together and indicating whom they desired. Then he would make appointments in conformity with their wishes. He also advised that they change their municipal regulations to meet the new conditions.

Gen. Lee's speech was received in excellent spirit. The Spanish colony in a formal document made known its satisfaction with the insurgent soldiers for preserving order.

Gen. Lee will make trips to other parts of the province. Various public assurances that as soon as arrangements are made for their payment the insurgent troops will disband without trouble.

The practice marches of the battalions have been quite beneficial and will be continued. Gen. Lee has practically decided to move a full brigade from its present camp near Havana to the hills of Candelaria, close to Guines. The location is unusually healthy.

The government transport Michigan arrived last night with fifty tons of refrigerator beef for the army. Unloading on high rails began at 10 o'clock, and one-fourth of the beef was spoiled. The representative of Swift & Co. refused to accept the delivery to the troops, and the beef was thrown back on the government.

THE MESABA RANGE.

Virginia, Jan. 26.—(Special to The Herald).—W. P. Bates, of the Wells-Stone Hardware company, of Duluth, transacted business in this city during the week.

If the two ladies who dropped a parcel in front of townsmen's old meat market last week will visit the store, Mr. Bates offers they will learn something to their advantage.

W. Crockett, of the firm of Stevens & Crockett, who are getting out timber for the various mines, was in the city Monday after horses and supplies for their camps.

Capt. G. W. Wallace, Senator Hawkins, J. G. Vivian and W. P. Bates drove over from the Payal on Sunday.

Mrs. G. W. Wallace, of the Payal, comes over every day to visit her sister, Mrs. Bert Trebbel, who is very ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Trebbel is some better, and hopes are entertained of her recovery.

M. L. Barber and Dr. Bates were Duluth visitors Monday. The latter was a Virginia visitor Monday on legal business.

Judge Martin, of Evelevh, was in the city yesterday attending the municipal court.

P. R. Field, the popular clerk of Talbot & Campbell's store, at Evelevh, who has been sick with la grippe and quinsy for the last three weeks, has almost recovered.

Rock Channing, superintendent of the Sparta Mining company, was a Virginia visitor on Monday.

The case of the State vs. John Taylor, which was tried in municipal court on Monday, in which Mr. Taylor was charged with stealing a house from Joseph DeWitt, ended by the case being dismissed.

Thursday evening a large party of the members of Mesaba Range, No. 24 K. O. P. M. drove over to the Mesaba, where they were met by a large delegation of Mesaba Range men, and a royal good review was held. Amongst those from Virginia who drove over were: Past Master, W. P. Bates, Commander, William H. Eaton, Commander, Elmer H. H. Thompson, Fred Engel, and T. H. Bates, and E. Johnson, Hank Lien, Alfred Stal and A. N. Torpala. They returned early in the morning, and report sleighing and singing good.

KILLED ON THE TRACK. Cleveland, Jan. 26.—North-bound train No. 2 on the Big Four road, while running forty miles an hour last night, instantly killed an unknown man and woman who were walking on the track a few miles west of this city. The bodies, which were mangled in a horrible manner, were brought here and placed in a morgue. The coroner will endeavor to establish the identity of the couple.

PURITAN DAMES. We hear a great deal these days of our puritan forefathers, but little concerning the wives and mothers who landed Plymouth Rock and founded that colony which was destined to play such a large part in our history.

In 1621 Elder Cushman wrote from Plymouth that he "would not advise any one to come here who were not content to spend their time, labor and endeavors for the benefit of those who shall come after, quietly contenting themselves with such hardships and difficulties as shall fall upon them."

What self-renunciation and heroic purpose was this! They dreamed of a better life, but that was no part of their puritanism. It was the puritan women who were so much for the spirit in our people which gives them the fortune to endure hardship and stake life and fortune for their convictions.

The American women of to-day have the spirit of their puritan mothers, but their conditions are not rugged or able to endure half the hardships of these New England ancestors. Very often they are run down with weakness and irregularities peculiar to their sex, and the constant drain upon their vitality makes them chronic invalids. Many women hesitate to go to their family physician, because they dread the local examinations so generally insisted upon by practitioners.

Such women should write Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalid Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., giving a full description of their symptoms, history, etc., so that he can give them the best possible medical advice. If Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription seems to suit the case, Dr. Pierce will send a copy of his book, which will put such women on the rapid road to recovery and health.

A POSSIBLE CLUE.

Drug Firm Furnishes One in the Adams Poisoning Case.

Cincinnati, Jan. 26.—What may be an important clue in the murder case of Mrs. Kate J. Adams, of New York, has been found in the fact that before the murder of Mrs. Adams, Von Moll & Co., Cincinnati, dealers in medicines, received a letter from H. Cornish, 1629 Broadway, New York, asking for a sample of medicine advertised in a New York newspaper. The letter was written on stationery of the Knickerbocker Athletic club. Mr. Brewster, of Von Moll & Co., after reading of the murder and a connection with the case of Cornish, turned the letter over to the police. It is now in New York, where the handwriting can be compared with that of Cornish.

New York, Jan. 26.—The police yesterday gave out for reproduction in the newspapers a fac simile of the writing on the package sent to H. DISOBEYED THE ARCHBISHOP.

Father Alfred Removed From Assumption Church at St. Paul

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—According to the St. Paul Dispatch, Assumption church, the largest German Catholic parish in St. Paul, is "torn up" over the deposition of the pastor, Father Alfred. Father Alfred had been the head of this parish for eight years. He had come to be regarded as a fixture.

The deposition of Father Alfred was based on charges of immorality which were made by Father Alfred's alleged disbeliever, an order of the Archbishop Martinelli, the papal delegate. It is not thought likely that the latter will override Archbishop Ireland, especially while the latter is absent in Europe.

"In The Blues" is a common saying of a person who exhibits low spirits, nerveless action and a failure to enjoy even the most cheery surroundings. Nine times out of ten this condition is accounted for by poor digestion, which affects the mind and nervous system, besides enfeebling the body.

Pabst Malt Extract The Best Tonic is a complete remedy for the "blues" and a promoter of good health and good cheer, being a pure, nourishing, concentrated food of easy digestion and soothing action.

I prescribe your "Best" Tonic in all cases of nervous debility, indigestion, and loss of appetite. It has given me the best results. DR. W. B. PAYNE, Covington, La.

CRAZE FOR COMBINE

Eagerness of Bankers to Promote Such Undertakings Is Noted.

BUOYANT BUSINESS

Good Accounts From the Iron and Steel Trade In All Quarters.

New York, Jan. 26.—The Iron Age in its weekly review to day says:

A perfect craze is developing for consolidation, added largely by the eagerness of bankers to promote such undertakings. They seem to be combining one another and encourage the disposition to put fancy valuations on moribund properties.

Active work is going on in the cast iron pipe industry. In the soil pipe branch there has been a movement for some time, but it has been progressing so slowly that some of the concerns are in a state of confusion. A great deal of work has been done under the leadership of Clifford Ladd toward a fusion of the bridge plants of the country.

The most interesting developments during the week, however, have been in connection with the plate industry. The same parties who carried through the consolidation in this industry are reported to have perfected now a fusion of the leading makers in the Central West of the plate bars, five plants being included, situated at Youngstown, Newcastle, Columbus and Wheeling. It is reported that arrangements have been made with one great works in Pittsburgh, and another in the Wheeling district, to secure exclusive control of this branch of raw material. In other words, outside mills are to find it difficult to obtain the needed tin plate.

Another important step in the same direction is the completion of arrangements for the purchase of a number of shops which make a specialty of tin plate machinery to control their capacity for the future. The purchase of the tin plate machinery is to be kept out of the hands of the tin plate makers.

From all quarters of the country reports concerning the volume of business and the strength of the markets. In the iron and steel industry, the outlook is bright. The demand for iron is offered is readily snapped up without much quibbling as to prices. There have been some reports of a decline in export, for delivery during the second half of the year, the aggregate being estimated at 1,000,000 tons.

The bill market has been very animated. Eastern buyers have purchased considerable quantities in the Central West.

In the steel trade Pittsburgh reports the sale of one block of 20,000 tons, while a moderate business has been done by other mills. A considerable tonnage of rails for foreign countries is being considered, but little has been actually placed.

Sales have been very active in bars and in cast material of all kinds. Among the transactions reported is a lot of 10,000 tons for steel castings, for material for some large contracts recently taken.

Foreign buyers for all kinds of material continue numerous, and in some cases are pressing, thus showing that the advance has not frightened buyers off.

THE SAMOAN MATTER.

Rear Admiral Kautz Instructed to Make Thorough Investigation.

New York, Jan. 26.—A special from Washington says: Rear Admiral Kautz has been instructed upon his arrival with the Philadelphia at Apia to investigate the entire Samoan situation and report the facts to the department. Reinforced by this report the department will be able to follow up its demand presented to the German government by Ambassador White, provided the report confirms the dispatches sent to the United States by the German government.

Department officials believe that the Philadelphia, under the orders telegraphed to her, is to leave Apia on Thursday for Honolulu on route to Apia. The vessel may be delayed at Apia, but it is expected that it will arrive in Honolulu within fifteen days. The cruiser will reach her destination.

THE DAMAGE COT DOWN.

Justice Buck Says Sam Peterson's Verdict Is Excessive.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—Justice Buck of the supreme court, the other members of the court, yesterday decided that S. D. Peterson, of New Ulm, must either content himself with a verdict of $1000 from the Western Union Telegraph company or stand another new trial.

The verdict is the result of a damage suit brought by Peterson against the company for transmitting a telegram sent at the close of the Davis assassination election six years ago. The wording of the telegram was:

"Silvery Sam, your name is pants." Peterson sued the company for damages, and the case has been up and down the line of litigation time and again during the past few years. Some time ago he received a heavy verdict in the district court, but the supreme court reversed the decision and sent the case back for a new trial. At the last trial the jury gave him a still larger verdict of $20,000.

Justice Buck holds that where an operator in the employ of a telegraph company, acting in the scope of his employment, maliciously sends a libelous telegram over the line to another party, the company is liable for punitive damages, but he holds that the verdict of the jury for $20,000 is excessive.

A FELLOW FEELING.

Makes Duluth People as "Wondrous Kind" as Elsewhere.

A fellow feeling prompts it. We all have trouble of our own. We appreciate assistance. Better from trouble promotes gratitude. Gratitude promotes publicity. Publicity promotes public good.

The kind that aches all day and doesn't cease at night. It is a grateful man when his back is cured. He wants to tell his friends about it. Let them know relief can be had. Lots of fellow feeling in Duluth. Duluth's Pills have cured so many backs.

Read what this Duluth citizen says: Mr. C. Hackman, of 222 Michigan street, Duluth, on the Northern Pacific railroad says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone who is troubled in all cases of kidney complaint and pains in the back and loins. I was troubled for years with a heavy dull aching through the small of my back and an unusual and painful condition of the kidney secretions. My work is particularly exposed to rough weather and doing a good deal of climbing about the cars. My condition aggravated. I had a box at the Duluth Drug company, and used them. In a remarkably short time I was thoroughly relieved of the trouble. My wife was suffering from growing old, and I had a deal of suffering from her back. She used Doan's Kidney Pills and the results were most satisfactory. Nothing I can say would exaggerate the good action of Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Duluth, N. Y. Agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute."

MURDEROUS NATIVES.

The Crew of the Cutter Curlew Are Murdered.

Victoria, Jan. 26.—The steamer Aorangi brings news that the steamer Ysabel conveyed to Sydney a report from Mr. Forrest, the resident trader at Santa Cruz, that information had reached him through native channels that a Sydney yacht had been captured by the natives, and that her crew of two white men had escaped into the bush. This was the island where the cutter Curlew was cut out early in the year.

The Ysabel proceeded to Utopia to make inquiries. They landed fully armed at the cutter Curlew, and found that the crew had been killed. The cutter Curlew was a small schooner, and was on her way to Sydney. The crew consisted of two white men and two natives. The natives had killed the white men and had taken the cutter Curlew.

CHEAPER THAN ANIMALS.

Horrible Charges of Experiments Upon Humans in Vienna.

London, Jan. 26.—The Vienna correspondent of The Morning Leader says: It has been discovered that the physicians in the free hospitals at Vienna systematically experiment upon their patients, women who are indigent and persons who are dying. In one case a doctor injected the bacilli of an infectious disease from a cancerous tumor into thirty-five women and three new born children. In another case a youth who was on the high road to recovery was inoculated and he died within twenty-four hours.

Many dying patients have been tortured by poisonous germs, and many men have been inoculated with contagious diseases. One of the most horrible experiments was conducted upon a young man who was suffering from a fatal disease. The doctor injected the patient with a large quantity of pus from a cancerous tumor, and the patient died within a few days.

PINE LAND DEAL.

Rupp & Kerr Sell a Big Block Near Tower.

Milwaukee, Jan. 26.—The sale of a tract of Northern Minnesota pine land for $90,000 was closed in this city yesterday. The purchaser was the Tower Lumber and Railroad company, the deal being made through D. Wittenberg, Jr., of Cedarburg, secretary and treasurer, on behalf of the company. The tract is owned by the property of Rupp & Kerr, of Saginaw, Mich., and the sale was negotiated for that firm by John Rupp. The property that changed hands consists of pine in St. Louis county, Minn., north of the western extremity of Lake Superior.

AS TO BINDING TWINE.

The Investigation Begins By the Jacobson Legislative Committee.

St. Paul, Jan. 26.—The Jacobson legislative investigation committee, charged with an inquiry into the management of the state binding twine plant at Stillwater, held its first formal session at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Warden Walker was present, with his assistants, books and papers. Senator Wilson of the committee conducted the cross-examination.

Warden Walker, by way of introduction, explained at length the extent of the twine plant in production in filling orders between large and small consignments. No more than reasonable amount of twine was sold in any case. He was asked by Gen. Wilson to furnish the committee with a transcript of orders which had been made by the board and promised to do so.

To his knowledge, Mr. Walker said that no twine had been sold to holders during 1898. He defined a holder as one who obtained the twine for his own use, at a small order, designated to supply the twine for his own use. He had carried his case so far as to produce before the board the twine managers' contracts drawn up by the twine managers, and he said that the twine was sold to the twine managers at a price of 10 cents per pound. He said that the twine was sold to the twine managers at a price of 10 cents per pound.

Warden Walker declared that it was the practice of the board of prison managers to make no distinction in filling orders between large and small consignments. No more than reasonable amount of twine was sold in any case. He was asked by Gen. Wilson to furnish the committee with a transcript of orders which had been made by the board and promised to do so.

BIG DEAL IS CLOSED

Entire Holdings of Wright-Davis People, Except Pine Lands, Sold.

Bought By the Great Northern Railroad For Five Million Dollars.

The Great Northern Railroad company has purchased the entire holdings of the Wright-Davis people in Minnesota, with the exception of their pine lands. It therefore now owns the Duluth, Mississippi River & Northern railroad, the Swan River Logging company and the Mahoning, Longyear and Bennett mines near Hibbing. This deal was consummated yesterday and a check for $5,000,000 was given to the Wright-Davis people for their property. Negotiations have been under way for several weeks and yesterday in St. Paul the great transaction was closed and the property passed into the hands of the Great Northern Railroad company.

The Duluth, Mississippi River & Northern railroad is built from Swan River, a point on the present Forest branch of the Great Northern railroad, the part which formerly was the Duluth & Winnipeg, to a point about twelve miles north of Hibbing. With all the branches there is about 100 miles of standard gauge railroad. The Great Northern railroad has been carrying this company's ore to the Alouette bay ore dock under a traffic contract. It has evidently found the property a desirable one to acquire. Its logging business is also very large and provides a handsome revenue. All of the logging contracts go to the Great Northern railroad.

Through this deal the Great Northern railroad takes a place among the ore carrying and mine owning roads operating on the Mesaba range. James J. Hill is a progressive man, and is not likely to remain idle in a territory in which he gains a foothold, especially when that territory offers such resources as this. The profits for carrying ore are enormous, and Mr. Hill is certain to want his share of them. It, of course, cannot be said that he will extend his line along the range, but his aggressiveness is not likely to rest easy and see other roads operating in the same field carrying off so much of the wealth without taking a hand himself. His road is rich, he has now all the facilities, the ore docks, the boats, and is in every way equipped to go into the ore carrying business. No one could offer such formidable opposition to the Rockefeller syndicate and the Minnesota Iron company as can James J. Hill and the Great Northern railroad.

One of the largest independent mine owners, when told by a Herald man today that the deal had been closed, was very happy. It can be no worse, he said, and may be a great deal better. He said that Mr. Hill was not getting a foothold on that range for nothing. The question of the possibility of the iron ore rate being disturbed arises in view of this deal. In his speech at the Lyceum last fall, Mr. Hill said that the policy of his road was to give the cheapest possible rates. The company must pay all expenses, interest and a certain fixed dividend, and is disposed to keep its rates at such figures as will provide that. Acting on that line, with this new property, he will probably find that he can make a large cut. The Duluth, Mississippi River & Northern Railroad company was first built by the Wright-Davis people as a logging road, and was used only as such. Later on, when the Mesaba range was opened, they found valuable iron deposits on their property, and the road was then extended and made an ore-carrying line. The mines are operated by the Mahoning Ore company. The Wright-Davis company retains what standing pine it still has; much of its possessions in this line were recently sold to Burlington, Iowa, people. J. F. Killorin, of Duluth, is general manager of the railroad and the Swan River Logging company. Michael Kelley, of Duluth, has also been closely associated with the firm.

Senator Platt Says We Have Been Annexing For a Century.

READS THEIR MINDS

Gives His Idea of Purposes Which Actuated the Constitution Framers.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator T. C. Platt of New York addressed the senate today on the Vest resolutions. He said in part:

"There has never been absent from the floor of the senate that class of intellect which has found in the constitution its warrant for opposing new things. Nor it is new things only which are so resolutely opposed in the name of the fathers. It is the old things, with new faces, as well. Here we have been for a whole century annexing territory, annexing with a club or a caress, just as the necessities demanded, and yet senators are discovering to one another the most acute distress over what they boldly describe as a departure from time-honored traditions."

"Mr. President, it was not the main purpose of the makers of the constitution to point out a way in accordance with which the problems of government were to be solved. That purpose, no doubt, was in their minds to some extent, but to an extent which must have had its boundaries defined in their own experience. Their main purpose was to devise a plan of government and not to ordain policies, and where they seemed to be ordaining policies, where they departed from the main work of establishing the bodies which together should form the government, and of distributing to each its particular functions, they were doing precisely what every other legislative assembly before their time and subsequently thereto has had to do—they were satisfying popular prejudices and looking forward to the day when their work would be passed upon by minds less trained than their own in the consideration of great principles and more subject than theirs to temporary and local prejudice."

"I do not mean to suggest, Mr. President, that such legislation as does occur in the constitution is any less binding upon us than that which was there as a concession to the sentiment of the hour, but I do affirm without hesitation that the inferences which we draw now from such legislation limiting the power of the general government and tending to render our government less competent than other governments need to be drawn carefully and need to be considered in the light of the whole scheme of federal authority. It is true that we are a government of limited powers, but the purpose of the limitation was simply to reserve to the people all those simple powers as would enable them to determine their own affairs in their own way—such affairs, I mean, as were not also the affairs of the people of other states—and it was not the purpose of such limitation to bind the federal government in providing as might seem best and wisest for the general welfare of the whole country."

"It is surprising, Mr. President, how often it has been necessary to make this argument to call attention to these distinctions, and yet I suppose the temptation is a natural one to make the phrase 'a government of limited powers' mean a government empowered to do whatever each man wants done, but forbidden to do whatever each man opposes. That thought must have occurred, it seems to me, to every senator who hears the proposition advanced here that we had the right under the constitution to annex territory for the purpose of putting up guns to kill people with, but lacked the right of annexing it for the purpose of putting up school houses and of doing the things that contribute to the happiness and prosperity of the people concerned."

"The disorder now existing in the Philippines, to which senators who are opposing the treaty may well afford to consider how far they are contributing, the unwillingness of the armed natives to accept American authority does not constitute in my mind the slightest ground on which to base a vote against the Paris agreement. On the contrary, it affords a new reason why our action should be the more prompt and unambiguous."

From Minnesota.

FROM THE HERALD.
Washington, Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The remainder of the Chippewa delegation arrived in Washington today. They were joined by Leech Lake Indians already here and will determine in the next day or two a plan of procedure while here. They will see all the officials of the interior department and the members of the Indian committee of both houses of congress. Their principal business is to knock out the present law for disposing of pine lands and have mentioned him for the following places: Secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, secretary of the interior, ambassador to Rome, ambassador to St. Petersburg, superintendent of the United States census, commissioner of internal revenue and superintendent of charwomen in the treasury department. At the present time Merriam is supposed to be freezing to death attending to his own personal business at West Superior, a mile and a half from Duluth.

the Gross Earnings Bill.
St. Paul, Jan. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—County Auditor Odla Halden returned to Duluth last night and took with him the bill that he had caused to be prepared for the division of the gross earnings tax. He submitted it to Senator C. O. Baldwin, who suggested a number of amendments, which met with Mr. Halden's approval. The bill will undergo a number of changes and will be sent to St. Paul early next week and be introduced simultaneously in both house and senate. Col. A. A. Harris, of Duluth, is the author of the bill, having drawn up at the request of the banking business in this city.

W. P. Hurlbut, the Duluth insurance man, was in St. Paul today on his way to Idaho, where he will look up a location with the intention of engaging in the banking business.

Judge S. H. Moor, Ellis E. Beebe and J. M. Roy arrived here this morning to participate in the annual meeting of the Northwest Whist association. Playing for the trophies begins this afternoon and will continue for two days.

SUBSIDIZING VESSELS.

All vessels are not agreed as to the merits of the Hanna-Payne bill for subsidizing American ships, which is now before congress. Legislation of this character was recommended by President McKinley in his message to congress, the necessity of adopting such a measure being based on the fact that 85 per cent of our commerce is now carried in foreign ships. According to the provisions of the Hanna-Payne bill,
the one American trans-Atlantic steamship line will receive between $200 and $300 more per voyage than now. There is one condition precedent, namely that the company shall build, in the United States, a steamship of not less than 11,200 tons. The cost of the required vessel is estimated at $2,700,000 or $3,- 000,000. It is admitted that the same ship could be built in England for about $2,500,000. So in order to make up for the higher price of shipbuilding
here, the bill proposes to pay such ships
a higher rate of subsidy than that paid to English or any foreign ships. The rate for fast steamers—over nine knots an hour—is nearly 2 cents per gross ton per 100 miles. This will make it possible for a trans-Atlantic liner to clear up in government bounty nearly $100,000 a round trip, which is about $200 more than an English liner gets from that government. The excuse for this liberality in bounties to fast liners is the government's desire that there be a large number of such vessels available as auxiliary cruisers, scouts, transports and messenger boats in time of war.

The foundation of the compensation feature of the Hanna-Payne bill is that 1 cent per gross ton per 100 nautical miles is sufficient to equalize the difference in cost of operation. Including factors dependent on differences in first cost of construction, of cargo steamships under the American and under foreign flags. In other words, in order to start our ships even with the subsidized and cheaper built vessels of foreign nations, the government offers (or will if this bill passes) to pay any American ship owner 1 cent for every 100 tons (including the weight of his ship) carried 100 miles. But there are exceptions so as to cut out coast-ers to Canadian ports and to Cuba and the West Indies. Half a cent is allowed to the uniform rate for the first 1500 miles on both the outward and return voyage. This is for the special encouragement of the vessels engaged in the South American trade, which is subject to severe competition from European vessels which bring cargoes to South America, and having nothing to carry back, are ready to pick up freight for the United States for whatever they can get.

One provision of the bill stipulates
that an American vessel owner, now engaged in the foreign trade, must, in order to reap the advantages offered, contract for the building of at least 25 per cent new tonnage in this country within five years after the bill becomes a law. This is intended to stimulate home industries in shipbuilding. The bill under consideration requires all officers to be American citizens. The proposed law also requires that all vessels which avail themselves of its provisions shall carry government mail free of charge.

Those who oppose this bill, while in favor of offering encouragement to the building up of our merchant marine,
believe that the subsidy paid should be based on the number of tons of freight carried and not on the tonnage of the vessel.

The superstition attached to the number 13 has not been a hard knock. The famous Astor battery, which returned from Manila with great honor, and with its ranks almost complete, left New York June 13, fought at Manila Aug. 13, captured a Spanish blockhouse numbered 13;
received orders to start for home Dec. 13;
was paid off Dec. 13, and arrived at San Francisco Jan. 13. The battery retired to hand at Pier 13, on its return to New York, but could not.

Dr. Lyman Abbott thinks it cowardly to destroy the government of any country and then sell away and leave the country to its own resources. Evidently the Philippines and Cubans think the same thing. Having destroyed the greater part of Spain's government in the Philippines and Cuba they propose to stay there and set up a government of their own. And being right on the ground, who has a better right? Will the freedom-loving American people say them nay?

There is no good reason for the passage of the bill now before the legislature presiding that desertion must continue three years before it will be ground for a divoce. The law now makes one year's desertion sufficient and it is all right.
The man or woman who deserts for a year is not likely to return.

We are gravely informed that it is believed two men in the Cuban revolution to strike for $1.25 per day, and as soon as they are discovered they will be arrested. This is liberty upheld and military rule made popular.

The unreasonable Cubans are now kiling because Alger proposes to dispose of all the valuable franchises and concessions on the island without their consent.
Well, what will those rebels do next?

Gen. Engan's witnesses have made out a strong case in his favor along the line of temporary mental aberration, and it would not be surprising if, on this ground,
the court-martial found him not guilty.

The announcement that there will not be any extensive coal strike in the bituminous coal mines this year, because building up the industry has reached an agreement, is good news.

Chicago's other literary men are looking enviously on John Maxwell, who has secured a $100,000 judgment against Nat
Goodwin for stealing the plot of a play.

Of course the grand jury at Butte could not find sufficient evidence to indict any mine workers for the sensational election
but what will be done with the $20,000?

Mr. Quay finds it very difficult to get the fourteen votes needed to ensure his re-election. And he is willing to shake the plum tree in order to get them.

The government is getting at least $50,- 000 a day from the heavy transactions on the stock exchange, owing to the war tax on stock sales.

Admiral Cervera has become a member of the Spanish senate. He may have more success in politics than he had in naval life.

"Give me liberty or give me death," says all right. "I am right, yes, Chief have death," replies the imperialist.

Now, Brother Abbott, if you would apply the golden rule, just suppose for a moment that you are a Filipino.

Japan is going through a period of hard times. Perhaps it is the result of too much attention to militarism.

It is no country's duty to govern the people of another country who desire to govern themselves.

The peace treaty between Mrs. Merrill and Mrs. Davis has not been ratified.

Perhaps Gen. Alger will now enter a plea of temporary insanity.

CHINESE IN HONOLULU.

Honolulu, Jan. 18, via Seattle, Wash., Jan. 27.—The supreme court has rendered an opinion in the eight Chinese habeas corpus cases submitted last week. It sustains jurisdiction, but gives the collector general of customs authority to enforce United States laws. Chief Justice Judd concurs in the first proposition but dissents from the second one.
The Chinese will appeal from the decision to the secretary of the treasury.

VANDERBILT DENIES.

New York, Jan. 27.—The Commercial
Advertiser prints a letter from W. K.
Vanderbilt denying an article in that paper yesterday, which stated that negotiations were pending looking to the transfer of the New York Central, or to a company controlled absolutely by the New York Central, of the stock, common and preferred, of the Chicago & Northwestern road and Union Pacific roads.

KILLED BY ROBBERS.

Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 27.—Late last night two masked men entered a house on a vegetable ranch east of the city, in which ten Japanese were asleep, and presenting pistols made them all get up and hand over their money and valuables. One of the Japanese, named Hasekura, made some resistance, and the robbers shot and killed him. They then made their escape.

Great Activity at the Crystal

Winter.

Crystal Falls.—There is great activity manifested at the Crystal Falls property this winter. It is the first time since the mine was opened up that a banner output next season, and it is confidently expected that the record of 125,000 tons made last season will be beaten by a good round figure. Stocking was begun as soon as shipping was suspended, and there is already quite a pile of ore on the dump. An additional lift of 100 feet was added to the shaft, and new work just now is confined to getting this new level in shape to produce ore. The method pursued in adding levels to the shaft is to sink a winze in the ore body somewhere near the shaft. The work of sinking the winze was run on the afternoon of the 25th, and the shaft was then required depth before shipping ceased.

CUBANS DON'T LIKE IT.

They Want to Dispose of Their Own Franchises.

Havana, Jan. 27.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, military governor of the department of Santiago, has arrived here from San Francisco. He is accompanied by
Maj. Brooks, the governor general of Cuba. Dr. Castillo, representing the business interests of Santiago, has also arrived.
The military governor has been informed that the Cubans do not like the franchise system. They want to dispose of their own franchises.

THE FARMER'S ALLIANCE ELEVATOR.

THEY ARE JOYFUL

Coal Men Are Very Much Pleased With Present Outlook.

Weather Is Cold and Business Is Good—Docks Will Be Cleared.

The coal companies are all pretty well satisfied with the situation at the present time. The weather is cold and hence lots of fuel is necessary; prices are good and there is reason to believe that very little coal will be remaining on the docks when navigation opens. In fact, the first boats up may have to bring up cargoes of certain sizes to relieve shortages.

Another large elevator of the most modern type will be built here the coming year, says the Superior Evening Telegram. Eric Olson, organizer for the Farmers' alliance of Minnesota, was in the city yesterday for the purpose of securing a city hall for the new elevator to be built. It is the purpose of the organization represented by Mr. Olson, to build a large elevator at the head of the lakes, and Mr. Olson stated that the new structure would certainly be built.

The Farmers' alliance has about ninety elevators now in operation in the state of Minnesota and a large number of others in various Northwestern states.

Mr. Olson called upon the grain firm of McGuire & Atwood yesterday, and under the direction of a member, made a visit to the possible locations for an elevator. He left last evening for his home at Shelburne, Minn., and will return again shortly, after making the organization for the purpose of taking up the active work of building the elevator.

THE TYLER RECITAL.

"In a Persian Garden" Rendered by a Fine Quartet.

The Masonic Temple recital hall was filled last evening at the song recital arranged by George Tyler. The first part was given by the pupils. The program opened with the grand duet from "Cavalleria Rusticana," sung by Miss Blanche Howe and Mr. Tyler, a very fine number. Other solos were: "The Magic Song," by Meyer-Helmund, sung by Miss Maud Batten; "The Dear Home Land," by Slaughter, sung by Miss Maud Batten; "The Anselmus," by Her- bert Jones; "The Anselmus," by Herbert Jones; "The Anselmus," by Herbert Jones.

OF GREAT BEEFIT

Division of Gross Earnings Tax Would Give Duluth a Big Sum.

HELP OUT THE CITY Estimated That This County Would Get About One-Fifth of Whole.

The draft of the proposed gross earnings apportionment law as published in the Herald yesterday afternoon was read with interest by a large number of citizens, who have interested themselves in the matter, and the general expression of opinion was that the law was well drawn and that it would undoubtedly serve the purpose from a legal standpoint. The idea of apportioning the railroad gross earnings taxes is embodied in it in what seems to be the best possible manner, and there is every reason to hope that it will pass through the legislature in some such form as that and that very slight if any amendments will be needed.

The effect of the law on this city, if the bill becomes a law, will be incalculable. It is stated that of the railroad property of the state one-fifth in value is located in this county. If this is true, and it does not seem at all unlikely, it means that after the state has deducted its tenth St. Louis county will get 20 per cent of what remains. This will be, under the present rate of taxation of railroads, in the neighborhood of $200,000 per year at least. Of this amount the city of Duluth would get about two-thirds. The result would be that tax rates would dwindle rapidly. There would be no more complaints about excessive taxes, because the balance to be made up by local taxation would be very reasonable indeed. County and city officials would be in the Twin Cities arousing interest in the measure. He has succeeded beyond his expectations, and while there is likely to be warm opposition to the measure, there is reasonable hope that it will pass. If it does pass, it will be a great benefit to the people here through a reduction of taxes. No efforts will be spared to make the plan a go at this session.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean.

Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame, and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspepsia often does not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly all the organs.

Some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated with headaches; still others have a very fine quality of voice, pure and bird like, and make her hearers wish for more. She is a young singer of much promise. George Tyler sang the tenor part, rendering the several beautiful solos with great brilliancy. Mrs. Mason's contralto part was won for herself the favor of the audience by her excellent singing of the contralto part. The quartet is to be continued and will be known as the best Duluth people have ever heard.

Twentieth Century Club.

The subscription list for the course of lectures "Art, Science and Society," by the Twentieth Century Club, will be open at the club rooms in the Torrey building tomorrow morning, from 10 to 12 o'clock. Any information on that subject will be gladly given to enquirers. Club membership tickets will also be issued at that time to those who have already applied for them, and applications for membership will also be received. The January number of "The Club Woman" will be delivered to subscribers, and further subscriptions taken.

The Pathfinders' Masquerade.

There was a large attendance at the Pathfinders' masquerade ball and dance, which took place at the Armory, there being at least 200 people on the floor and many more in the galleries. Four couples competed for the prize in the championship cake walk, which was a handsomely adorned medal. It was carried off by "Shots" Kennenbeck and Miss Cyranne De Bergeane, of West Duluth, and they also won the laurels in the walk for a cake.

There were many remarkably beautiful costumes.

City Committee Named.

The Republican city committee was named yesterday afternoon by Judge Southard, chairman of the convention, as follows: C. T. Craudall, chairman, R. P. Howard, First ward; C. E. Richardson, Second ward; W. M. Blitt, Third ward; James Dingwall, Fourth ward; Don McLennan, Fifth ward; Alvin Kennedy, Sixth ward; R. D. Haven, Seventh ward; A. J. Meldahl, Eighth ward.

The committee met with Judge Southard at the city hall last evening and discussed plans for the campaign.

Steeled, colds make fat graveyards. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup helps men and women to a happy, vigorous old age.

Orange Lodge Masquerade.

The masquerade ball given by the ladies of the Loyd Orange lodge at Columbia hall last night was a delightful affair. There were over 200 people present. The prize for the most comical costume was awarded to Franklin Stevenson. Supper was served by Mrs. Butchart, Mrs. Glesby and Mrs. White.

DIED ON HIS BIRTHDAY.

Sudden Demise of a Well Known Insurance Man.

St. Cloud, Minn., Jan. 27.—H. P. Hubbell, of Winona, the veteran representative of the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance company, dropped dead in the lobby of the Grand Central hotel here at 10:50 Wednesday night. It is believed that death was due to a paralytic stroke. It was Mr. Hubbell's 56th birthday, and he had spent the evening at the hotel.

Mr. Hubbell was a well known insurance man, and had been in the city for some time. He was a member of the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance company, and had been in the city for some time. He was a member of the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance company, and had been in the city for some time.

MORE BIG STEAMERS.

Cleveland, Jan. 27.—The Bessemer Steamship company (Rockefeller fleet), has asked for bids on three big vessels of the largest type, a steamer and two barges. The steamer is to be a duplicate of the Morse, the largest vessel on the great lakes, and the barges are to be of the 800 net ton type.

CHURCH FOR INDIANS.

Cloquet, Minn., Jan. 27.—Father Homer, a Catholic priest, who has been for some time in the city, is the subject of a petitioning the government to set aside the land upon which the church is located. This petition is being taken to prevent any one from filing an allotment on the land upon which the church now stands and which is recognized by a majority of the Indians as church property. There is a question of granting this land for the church, and it is probable a contest will be on before the Indian agent.

DROWNED IN NELSON RIVER.

Capt. John Mason of Philadelphia Lost His Life.

Laird River, Aug. 26, via Edmonton, N. W. T., Jan. 27.—Capt. John Mason, of a large Philadelphia party bound for the gold fields, was accidentally drowned in the Nelson river, three miles above his mouth, on the afternoon of Aug. 24. The Philadelphians, with the big four party of Chicago, were outfitting horses and outfit down the Nelson river, and the raft which Capt. Mason was on stuck on a sand bar. It was a necessary to unload the horses in order to get the raft off. Capt. Mason stayed with the horses on the bar and the raft drifted down the river to make a landing. When about half a mile below the men on the raft heard the captain cry loudly for help, as he was driving the horses to the shore. It is not known whether he was taken by a runaway or was struck by a horse. His hat was found about half a mile below, but the body was not found.

TRAFFIC AT A STANDSTILL.

Another Severe Snow Storm Is Raging in Colorado.

Denver, Jan. 27.—Another snow storm, light in Denver but severe in some portions of the mountains, has been prevailing during the past twenty-four hours. Around Leadville in every direction are huge drifts. At Kokomo about eighteen inches snow has fallen. Traffic is at a standstill. The railroads are unable to get coal in, and as a consequence a number of mines have been shut down, and residents of the town are also almost out. Fresh meat is scarce, and as a whole the town is in a pretty bad shape.

There has been no Eastern mail since Thursday last, and but two Western mails since then. The railroads have been making valiant efforts to clear the roadway, but the snow drifts in as fast as taken out.

NEW PAPER MILL.

Marquette, Wis., Jan. 27.—A company has been organized to build a paper mill at White Rapids, thirty-five miles from here, on the Menominee river, will be organized in a few days. Onkosh and Neenah people, including Kimberly, Clark & Co. are interested. The mill will cost $400,000 and will manufacture sixty tons a day.

THE EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY.

Berlin, Jan. 27.—Emperor William today celebrated his birthday. The emperor, who is 59 years of age, was taken away from the chapel of the castle, he held a reception.

CARPET FACTORY BURNED.

Philadelphia, Jan. 27.—The carpet factory of William Judge, 2700 Arch street and Columbia avenue, was gutted by fire early this morning. Loss estimated at $100,000, covered by insurance.

Coal Men Are Very Much Pleased With Present Outlook.

Weather Is Cold and Business Is Good—Docks Will Be Cleared.

The coal companies are all pretty well satisfied with the situation at the present time. The weather is cold and hence lots of fuel is necessary; prices are good and there is reason to believe that very little coal will be remaining on the docks when navigation opens. In fact, the first boats up may have to bring up cargoes of certain sizes to relieve shortages.

Another large elevator of the most modern type will be built here the coming year, says the Superior Evening Telegram. Eric Olson, organizer for the Farmers' alliance of Minnesota, was in the city yesterday for the purpose of securing a city hall for the new elevator to be built. It is the purpose of the organization represented by Mr. Olson, to build a large elevator at the head of the lakes, and Mr. Olson stated that the new structure would certainly be built.

The Farmers' alliance has about ninety elevators now in operation in the state of Minnesota and a large number of others in various Northwestern states.

Mr. Olson called upon the grain firm of McGuire & Atwood yesterday, and under the direction of a member, made a visit to the possible locations for an elevator. He left last evening for his home at Shelburne, Minn., and will return again shortly, after making the organization for the purpose of taking up the active work of building the elevator.

THE TYLER RECITAL.

"In a Persian Garden" Rendered by a Fine Quartet.

The Masonic Temple recital hall was filled last evening at the song recital arranged by George Tyler. The first part was given by the pupils. The program opened with the grand duet from "Cavalleria Rusticana," sung by Miss Blanche Howe and Mr. Tyler, a very fine number. Other solos were: "The Magic Song," by Meyer-Helmund, sung by Miss Maud Batten; "The Dear Home Land," by Slaughter, sung by Miss Maud Batten; "The Anselmus," by Herbert Jones; "The Anselmus," by Herbert Jones; "The Anselmus," by Herbert Jones.

The subscription list for the course of lectures "Art, Science and Society," by the Twentieth Century Club, will be open at the club rooms in the Torrey building tomorrow morning, from 10 to 12 o'clock. Any information on that subject will be gladly given to enquirers. Club membership tickets will also be issued at that time to those who have already applied for them, and applications for membership will also be received. The January number of "The Club Woman" will be delivered to subscribers, and further subscriptions taken.

The Pathfinders' Masquerade.

There was a large attendance at the Pathfinders' masquerade ball and dance, which took place at the Armory, there being at least 200 people on the floor and many more in the galleries. Four couples competed for the prize in the championship cake walk, which was a handsomely adorned medal. It was carried off by "Shots" Kennenbeck and Miss Cyranne De Bergeane, of West Duluth, and they also won the laurels in the walk for a cake.

There were many remarkably beautiful costumes.

City Committee Named.

The Republican city committee was named yesterday afternoon by Judge Southard, chairman of the convention, as follows: C. T. Craudall, chairman, R. P. Howard, First ward; C. E. Richardson, Second ward; W. M. Blitt, Third ward; James Dingwall, Fourth ward; Don McLennan, Fifth ward; Alvin Kennedy, Sixth ward; R. D. Haven, Seventh ward; A. J. Meldahl, Eighth ward.

The committee met with Judge Southard at the city hall last evening and discussed plans for the campaign.

WHY IS ELECTRIC LIGHT BEST?

Because it is Healthy, Clean, Pure and Brilliant.

HEALTHY! It has no odor. Prof. Thomson states one cubic foot of gas consumes as much oxygen as four adults.

CLEAN It causes no discolorations of furnishings and decorations in homes.

SAFE As electric bell work, no danger of suffocation.

CHEAP! By using a little care in turning off lights when not in use it is cheaper than any other illumination.

ELEVATOR COMPANY FAILS.

Henry W. Sebastian Receiver of a St. Louis Concern.

St. Louis, Jan. 28.—Henry William Sebastian, president of the St. Louis Bridge and Iron company, has been appointed receiver of the Farmers' Elevator company of this city, which made an assignment today. The elevator, which is one of the largest and best in the city, has a capacity of 1,000,000 bushels. No figures are given to show the extent of the liabilities and assets. The Farmers' Elevator company has a capital stock of $250,000 with a bonded indebtedness of $200,000, and a floating debt of $25,000. For some time past a heavy judgment has been hanging over the company and this, with some other troubles, has caused the action taken today. Receiver Sebastian's official bond is $25,000.

Senator Bacon Attempts to Have Considered His Philippines Resolution.

WORK OF CONGRESS

Dakota Southern Granted Right-of-Way Through the Yankton Reservation.

Washington, Jan. 28.—A concurrent resolution adopted by the New Hampshire legislature urging the speedy ratification of the treaty of Paris was presented by Mr. Gallinger, of New Hampshire.

A resolution calling upon the secretary of the treasury for information concerning the investigation of the bureau of printing and engraving was adopted. A bill granting a right-of-way to the Dakota Southern Railway company for the construction of a railway line through the Yankton Indian lands in South Dakota was passed.

A resolution was introduced directing the secretary of war to make a survey and estimate for the improvement of Brazos river, Texas.

A resolution was adopted at the instance of Mr. Gallinger, calling upon the secretary of state to procure from the United States representatives abroad the annual amounts paid by the foreign governments for pensions not civil.

House bill for adjusting the clothing accounts of deceased soldiers was passed.

Mr. Hale called upon the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill.

Mr. Bacon objected, as he had given notice that he proposed at this hour to call up his resolution regarding the Philippines and endeavor to fix a time for a vote upon it.

Mr. Chandler—Does the senator desire to dispose of his resolution today?

Mr. Bacon—Not if senators object.

He went on to say that his resolution was essentially a practical document and intended for the purpose of interfering with any other business.

"It will then place the treaty of peace where we can reach a basis of agreement. It is a most grave matter, Mr. President, and I hope the subject so will be regarded by the senate."

Mr. Bacon yielded to the appropriation bill.

Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, then asked that the senate take a recess from 2 o'clock to 3:30 in order to enable senators to attend the funeral of Senator Garland, who died suddenly in the supreme court on Thursday.

In connection Mr. Hoar said a high character in Mr. Garland's ability and character as a citizen, lawyer and senator.

The recess was ordered.

The consular and diplomatic bill was then read. It appropriates $1,710,553, $500 more than the amount of the measure passed by the house.

INVADERS OF LIBERTY.

Congressman Handy Says His Troops Should Be Brought Home.

Washington, Jan. 28.—In the house today a joint resolution was adopted granting to the republic of Venezuela the privilege of sending a cadet to the West Point military academy. A bill was passed authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Missouri river at Lexington, Mo.

Owing to the small attendance in the house today and the fact that eulogies to the late Representative Simpkins of Massachusetts were set for 2 o'clock, it was decided not to offer for action today the amendments to the army reorganization bill providing for the reduction of the size of the infantry companies and cavalry troops. These were amendments which Mr. Hull gave notice yesterday.

Mr. Todd (Dem.) of Michigan offered an amendment providing for the reduction of the military and naval forces of the United States from the Philippines whenever the natives should have established a stable and independent government and declaring that there should be no increase in the regular army in time of peace, but authorizing the president to use the state militia and call for volunteers when necessary. It was ruled out on a point of order.

Speaking to a pro forma amendment, Mr. Handy (Dem.) of Delaware said that he would withdraw his troops from Manila before a hostile shot had been fired against the natives, who were standing for liberty. He would not like to witness another Bunker Hill in which we would act the part of the invaders of liberty.

PROMINENT POPULIST DEAD.

He Ran For Vice President With Gen Weaver.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 28.—Hon. Evan Jones, one of the most prominent figures in the Populist party, died last night at his home. Mr. Jones was on the national Populist ticket with Gen. Weaver and was also a congressional candidate on the Populist ticket two years ago.

LEVI MAYER STANDS MUTE.

Refuses to Plead in the Sugar-Glucose Combine Case.

New York, Jan. 28.—Levi Mayer, of Chicago, who, according to a dispatch from Portland, Me., is in the city to conduct negotiations for a combine between the glucose and American Sugar Refining interests, said today:

"I must absolutely refuse to discuss the matter. I have nothing to say regarding that dispatch."

Mr. Mayer has been in this city frequently during the past few weeks, and has been associated with several of the large manufacturers of industrial and other capital. He was connected with the organization of the glucose combination and it has been rumored frequently during the last few weeks that his presence in this city was merely due to the matter of the sugar-glucose combine. On other occasions Mr. Mayer has been questioned in this regard, but he has definitely refused to deny or confirm the reports. The sugar interests recently made denials that such a combine was under consideration, but this by no means settled the rumors that negotiations were under way. Both sugar and glucose were strong on the stock market today.

FOR A BIG FIGHT.

A Wyoming Company Offers a Purse of $20,000.

Omaha, Jan. 28.—The Fremont Hot Springs company, of Alameda, Wyo., have forwarded an offer to the managers of both Sharkey and Fitzsimmons offering a purse of $20,000 for a fight to take place any time in June, July or August. The only condition attached to the offer is that the training shall be done at Alameda.

TO GO TO THE PHILIPPINES.

Expedition to Include the Third Infantry at Fort Snelling.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Gen. M. V. Sheridan, commander of the department of the lakes, issued orders today for the departure of an expedition to the Philippines. The force will include the Third Infantry, now at Fort Snelling, Minn., and four companies of the Seventeenth Infantry stationed at Columbus, Ga., and the Tenth Infantry at Fort Snelling, Ohio. The troops will leave their home stations Jan. 30 and sail from New York Feb. 1. The expedition will be commanded by Gen. A. A. Wood, and will include the Third Infantry at Fort Snelling during the absence of the Third regiment in the far East.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Secretary Alger Will Resign Soon or Be Asked to Do So.

FROM THE HERALD WASHINGTON BUREAU.

Washington, Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The conviction of Gen. Egan has been stated before in these dispatches. The fight against the state normal school is particularly vigorous. The members realize this fact and are working the harder. The proposed bounty on iron ore, the bill for which was introduced in the house and senate yesterday, has not yet been discussed. The bill for the state normal school is still in the house and senate. It is a fact that many of those to whom the matter has been presented in an intelligent manner have declared themselves enthusiastically in favor of it. The division of the bureau earnings tax is another subject on which there has been a sharp fight. The bill will probably be ready to present to the house and senate next Tuesday, and shortly after that sentiment will begin to form among the statesmen. The bill introduced in the senate yesterday providing for a reduction in the salary of the judge of the municipal court from $100 to $50 may not become a law. The judiciary committee yesterday afternoon pronounced the bill unconstitutional, but notwithstanding this fact the committee is willing to report in favor of its passage.

Representative Pugh will, during the coming week, push his bill providing for the payment of the volunteer soldiers from the time of their enrollment to their enlistment in the service of the United States. He says there is no opposition to the bill and that he is only waiting to learn whether or not the federal government will pay its proportion direct to the men or reimburse the state.

Senators C. O. Baldwin and E. B. Hawkins went to Duluth yesterday afternoon. This is Senator Baldwin's first trip to Duluth for three weeks.

CARNegie MAKES AN OFFER.

Will Give Pennsylvania $100,000 For a Carnegie Library.

Harrisburg, Jan. 28.—Andrew Carnegie has offered to donate $100,000 for a library building for the state college at Bellefonte, providing the state will appropriate $100,000 annually for the maintenance of the library and museum and to be connected with it.

The trustees of the state college have appointed a committee to present a memorial to the legislature setting forth Mr. Carnegie's offer, and urging the necessity for such buildings.

LARGE WHEAT SURPLUS.

That of New Zealand Amounts to 6,500,000 Bushels.

Wellington, N. Z., Jan. 28.—The surplus wheat of New Zealand is announced, will amount to 6,500,000 bushels. The surplus of other grain is also larger than usual.

DEFEAT DISHEARTENED HIM.

Milwaukee's Marrying Squire Takes His Own Life.

Milwaukee, Jan. 28.—George McWhorter, for thirty years justice of the peace, and lately appointed court commissioner, committed suicide today by shooting himself in the head. His body was found lying on the floor of his office in the Casswell block in this city.

Mr. McWhorter was well known throughout the state and during the summer months did a land-office business in marrying couples from adjoining states. Despondency over his defeat in the spring election for justice of the peace, which office he held so long, is supposed to have led to his rash act. He was single and about 65 years old.

DULUTH MEASURES

Legislators From This County Have Not an Easy Task Ahead.

MUST FIGHT HARD

Some of the Bills Will Likely Meet With Very Strong Opposition.

From a Staff Representative.

St. Paul, Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—There has been little accomplished during the present legislative week that is of special interest to Duluth, although the St. Louis county delegation has been busily at work shaping up its lines preparatory to the vigorous campaign it proposes to wage in the effort to pass the several bills which the people of this city so urgently demand.

The task which the Duluth legislators have undertaken is no easy one. They have asked for an appropriation of $150,000 with which to build a state normal school, a bounty on pig iron manufactured within the state of 50 cents a ton, the department of the state earnings tax among the counties which will Duluth and St. Louis county would receive an annual revenue of more than $200,000; the authority to refund the city's floating debt; some measure to protect the city from heavy loss by reason of the delinquent tax sale and numerous other bills of great or less importance.

Some of these bills cannot be passed except over great opposition. As has been stated before in these dispatches, the fight against the state normal school is particularly vigorous. The members realize this fact and are working the harder. The proposed bounty on iron ore, the bill for which was introduced in the house and senate yesterday, has not yet been discussed. The bill for the state normal school is still in the house and senate. THE N. P. WINNER.

Judge Lochren Decides That Its Eastern Terminus Is at Ashland.

St. Paul, Jan. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge Lochren of the United States court today filed a decision, involving the right of the Northern Pacific railway to about 1,000,000 acres of land in Northern Minnesota and Wisconsin, the company securing title to that much land. The contest was over the eastern terminus of the railway, the United States holding that it was at Duluth, while the company insisted that it was at Ashland.

The government applied to have the lands, which had been patented to the road, restored to the public domain, cancelling the patent issued four years ago. The case decided was for a small tract of land, but the point decided involves over 1,000,000 acres, which now goes to the railroad unopposed.

The secretary of the interior decided that Duluth was the eastern terminus of the road, but the company combated his ruling, and Judge Lochren decides in favor of the company.

IRON'S PROSPEROUS YEAR.

C. Kirchhoff, editor of the Iron Age and a recognized authority on subjects

connected with the iron trade, has presented reasons for the unusual activity in that industry. It is a fact that this year has been a remarkably successful one for the iron trade, and the heavy spring market is expected, all of which is of peculiar interest to Duluth and to St. Louis county, in view of the increased demand that will be created for Minnesota ore. Usually the winter brings a dull period for the iron trade,

and both actual consumption and the distribution of goods are greatly curtailed. This being the customary state of things, it was not surprising to find that as the fall of 1898 waned doubts as to the coming months became more pronounced. The prevailing life of business struck the iron trade, and the iron trade is now enjoying in all but a few branches the extraordinary condition of a rushing activity. There has been no lingering over holidays, stock-taking or general paralysis. With buyers

clamoring for deliveries the producers are straining every machine and are crowding every man to get out tonnage.

The question naturally arises whether this feverish activity is merely one of those short spurts, like that of the summer of 1895, with its accompanying

"soda-water" rise, or whether it is the evidence of the early phases of a lasting and widespread industrial improvement. It is urged, if we are so busy in the dull season, what will be the demands upon us when the usually active period of the year comes?

For the solution of these questions,

Mr. Kirchhoff offers the following considerations: As a nation we have been allowing much of our equipment to run down at the head during the wretched

years which followed the panic of 1893. Thus, for instance, a considerable number of railroads allowed their roadbeds and their rolling stock to run down, and year after year lack of funds led to the pigeon-holing of the requirements of the operating officers.

These have been common conditions during the past six months, and are responsibly for the enormous orders placed

for steel rails, cars, locomotives, bridges, machinery and supplies. One important fact must not be overlooked

when dealing with the present and the future demand for iron and steel. The lowering in price, which has been out in two during the past six years, has made metal available where other construction materials were employed formally as more expensive. As a result striking to the general public is furnished by the use of steel in buildings,

although the annual tonnage does not come up to that needed for fencing farms. Another example of this substitution is for the growing use of steel for railroad freight cars. Another permanent accession to our home consumption is that due to the transfer of the tin-plate industry to our soil, the steel requirements running up to 400,000 tons annually.

Mr. Kirchhoff thinks, however, that the most potent factor in stimulating

our iron industry is the succession of good harvests which our farmers have enjoyed. As a pre-eminently agricultural country, money making in that branch means a lasting benefit in which all must share. It has released funds which have sought reinvestment in a thousand channels and which have brought customers for the iron workers in all directions. Unless calamities to our crops befall us this year the influence of the profits made by the agricultural community will prevail for a long time to come, and it is this more than anything else which gives confidence to the iron industry. Mr. Kirchhoff closes his remarks as follows:

It is not only the iron industry, but every industry in the iron trade are adverse to any repetition of the experiences of the boom of 1879-1880. To begin with they have little or nothing to sell. Then a period of inflation of values would tempt outside capital into the industry, with its train of poorly located and hurriedly built plants, which

in their death throes inflict untold injury upon all. It would galvanize into life all the progress stranded by neglect or by the progress of the industry.

Finally, it would disorganize a business

for the acquisition of which serious sacrifices have been made in recent years—the export of iron and steel to foreign countries. Begun in times of distress, it is now bound to grow rapidly because many of our producers, favored with cheap raw materials, with low rates of freight and equipped with the latest improvements, can undersell

the world and make money. Low as last year's prices were, they were very remunerative to the best-located and best-equipped American steel companies. What they have done other countries can and will accomplish too.

It looks as though possibly during the next few months there may be a scarcity of iron and of steel. The former will be relieved by the blowing in of a few old plants and the starting in of several large new works. As for steel, those who have observed the phenomenal capacity for expansion of American works

under American management will report the next six months to be one long repetition of record breaking.

If these predictions be correct, and there is every reason to believe that they will be verified, there should be presented a splendid opportunity to enlist the attention of capitalists in the establishment of new iron and steel plants at favorable locations. Perhaps it will be possible to secure the necessary capital for the establishment of workshops at this description here, where all the raw materials can be gathered together more cheaply than at any other

Northwestern point, and whence the manufactured product can be cheaply transported to an almost unlimited market. The Herald firmly believes that if the legislature provides for a bonus of 50 cents a ton on pig iron, this inducement, coupled with the generally active at all the established furnaces and mills, and the great demand that will exist for iron and steel, will result in the establishment here of large iron and steel plants.

WHEAT INSPECTION.

The North Dakota people are still agitating the question of securing a system of inspection which would result in the placing of their wheat on the market as North Dakota wheat. This has been discussed ever since the state

began to raise wheat, but so far no plan has been suggested that appears to cover the case. The question of inspection at state terminals—Grand Forks,

Fargo and Wahpeton—has been agitated, but various difficulties have presented themselves to interfere with the plan. While all of the wheat which is shipped out of the state passes through one of these cities, none of them are actual terminals, and inspection there would necessitate the holding up, in transit, of every wheat train going out of the state until every carload could be supplied.

The Grand Forks Herald admits that this delay would, in itself, be a serious inconvenience, and adds: "The main difficulty, however, is the fact, which we cannot change, that wheat is, and probably always will be, purchased according to grades recognized by the great boards of trade, where wheat is one of the staple articles of commerce.

The fact that a carload of wheat was graded No. 1 hard in North Dakota

would not induce a buyer to pay the price of that grade for it if he knew that it was not No. 2. It is difficult to see how local and independent inspection would help matters much. The problem could probably be solved by an inter-state system of inspection. If the states interested could be induced to cooperate in this plan, and if the encouragement of the fullest competition between local buyers should not be forgotten. The subject is not one which can be settled off hand, and it is likely that it will require a great deal of time to furnish food for thought for some time.

But what benefit to the farmers would it be to have the wheat grown in North Dakota sent to market as North Dakota wheat? The question with the grain buyer is not where the wheat comes from, but what is its grade. Duluth buyers are so graded every where

by the boards of trade, and wheat is bought and sold in accordance with the grade given here. When Dakota wheat comes here and is graded it stands on the same level as all other wheat of the same grade, and it would not stand

THE DULUTH SOCIETY.

The most talked about of all coming social affairs is the masquerade ball to be given at the Army and Navy hotel for the benefit of the Woman's hospital. The ladies who are in charge of the ball have displayed great energy and originality in arranging for features and it will be a very entertaining affair both for spectators and participants. The Army will be handsomely decorated and Phantoms orchestra will play. Special precautions will be taken to prevent the intrusion of undesirable persons.

The ball will open with a parade headed by "Night" and her escort, and "Morning" with a train. An equestrian drill of one of the great families of the East, will then take place and afterward a cotillon will be danced by six young society people. Then will come a grand cake walk. The Sagar Deed company has offered a handsome prize to the best lady cake walker. Edwards has offered one for the best costume on the floor and S. C. Church of the Imperial mill has offered a prize for the most comical costume.

Following this the regular program of dances will be given. No one not in costume will be allowed on the floor before midnight. Tickets may be obtained of W. E. Lucas, C. F. Leland, T. W. Hoopes and D. R. McLennan. A chartered car will leave for Lakeside at 11 a. m.

The new Assembly list closed on Wednesday and the number that became members exceeded expectations. The first party will be given about Feb. 10 and will be a brilliant one. All of the club's parties will be the finest ever given here. The interest taken in the new Assembly is very great and there is a large demand for an extension of the limit which has been placed on membership.

Wednesday evening, Feb. 3, will be the next ladies' night at the Klitchi Gamm club. A departure from the ordinary will be made in that each club member will be entitled to one invitation for a Duluth person who is not a member.

The Young Ladies' card club will be entertained next Monday afternoon by Miss Eaton, of 923 East Superior street.

A number of young people went over to Superior Wednesday evening to a party given at the West Superior hotel by the ladies of that city. It was a very delightful party. Those who went were:

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Barnes.
Miss Selwood.
Miss Leach.
Miss McBride.
Miss Martin.
Miss D. R. McLennan.

Mrs. J. H. Upham gave a handsome luncheon at the Spaulding today.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Persons at Lester Park, where they have made their home, will be entertained at a farewell party on Monday evening in giving them a farewell party at Harmon hall. There were about eighty guests and the evening was very pleasantly spent in dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Persons and family left for Lewiston, Idaho, to make their home.

A very pleasant dancing party was given Wednesday evening at Masonic Temple.

A very enjoyable affair this week a surprise party given at the home of Mrs. Tress and William Getty at their home, 303 East Sixth street, Wednesday evening. The guests were:

Misses:
Bertha Huakon.
Marie McCreekin.

An exhibition of work of the art students at Cragcroft opened this afternoon and will continue this evening. The work has been done under the direction of Miss Rosamond Wright.

Mrs. Albert E. McManus has cards out for a euchre party to be given Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 3.

Tomorrow afternoon at the Army and Navy hotel, the orchestra will give another of its popular Sunday concerts. A fine program has been prepared. Mrs. Emily Ellis Woodward will be the vocal soloist and Albert Hoelscher will give a flute solo. The program is as follows:

March—"Nebelhorn"..... Wagner
Overture—"Grande Messe"..... Brahms
"Two Hungarian Dances"..... Brahms
Grand finale from the "Missa"..... Donizetti
Soprano solo—"Gloria"..... Gounod Orchestra accompaniment.
Waltz de concert—"Missa"..... Donizetti

Much interest is being taken in the entertainments which are to be given by the High School Musical society on Wednesday and Friday of next week. The first part of the program on both nights will consist of an amusing farce in one act by K. H. Backstrom entitled "Popping the Question." This piece is well written, full of witty lines and amusing situations. The second part is a play in London at the close of the last century and the costumes will be thoroughly in keeping with the times. The cast is as follows:

Our petitioners have been met with indifference; our petitions have gone into the waste-basket. In view of these things, it would seem that the time is ripe for us to declare that we are, and of right ought to be, free and independent women; that as such, we have no power favoring male laws and in other things that free and independent citizens may of right do."

STARTING UP AGAIN.

Interest in the Naval Reserve Shows Signs of Reviving.

The Minnesota naval reserve idea, which has been somewhat neglected since last spring, is starting up again, and it is expected that before long an effort will be made to get recognition from the state. Nothing definite has been done as yet, but several of the leading members of the Duluth reserve have been talking the matter over, and it has been decided to prepare a bill for presentation to the state legislature authorizing the organization of a body of naval reserves in connection with the state militia. Some changes in the organization of the state militia will be necessary before the legislature can act, and it is not believed that it will be difficult to get the state to recognize the reserve.

The old National Guard regiments are plunged in a state of profound apathy, and the members of general nervousness. They are likely to get out of it or not. The Twelfth and Fourteenth are particularly unorganized, and the Twelfth will have had enough military service when it gets back from Manila to last it for awhile. If the state is to have any National Guards at all, something will have to be done, and those who are favoring the organization of the naval reserves feel that it is no more than right that so long as the dough boys have had a show, the naval reserves should be given a place in the state militia, whether as substitutes for one of the old regiments or as an entirely new body.

The bill will not be to any great expense in the matter. It will have to furnish arms and uniforms, as well as pay for the men in case they are called out or sent to campment or on a cruise, but as the state is now paying for the maintenance of the navy, it will furnish boats, arms and accoutrements, etc.

The state has been interested in the matter. St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth are the most wonderful reservoirs of water will form naval reserves, and the influence back of them will help to get the desired measures through the legislature.

WOMEN MUST TAKE IT.

Thousands Rely on Paine's Celery Compound to Keep Them Well.

The famous North Side Woman's club, of Chicago, has been an eyewitness to the good results that follow the use of Paine's celery compound.

"For the past six years," she says, "I have had ample opportunity to observe the good results obtained from the use of Paine's celery compound, as our medical advisers frequently prescribe it. I have used it in my own case, and as they are business women they frequently feel the need of a tonic for the system, and a run-down condition. We have it constantly on hand."

Thinking that you may be glad to know that Paine's celery compound is appreciated by our club women," she writes to the proprietors, "I enclose herewith a testimonial from our club women."

Many women are in need of nothing but Paine's celery compound to make them strong and well, and after reading the many publications of the club, from people in every walk of life whom it has restored to health, there is the remark, "I don't see any one's mind of its unexampled efficacy, there is this to be said, that after all, the best of all is Paine's celery compound is to try it."

Paine's celery compound has never been so widely known. It has made thousands of people well.

BROOKE IS TO GO.

A Report That Gen. Leonard Wood Will Take His Place.

New York, Jan. 28.—A special to the Journal and Advertiser from Washington says:

It is announced on excellent authority that the president has decided to remove Gen. Brooke, military governor of Cuba, and appoint Gen. Leonard Wood in his place. The change is to take place Feb. 1. Gen. Wood is reported to be scheduled for second in command.

BLAST FURNACE SOLD.

One at South Chicago Bought By Pig Iron Dealers.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—The Ironworks furnace company's plant at Ninety-third street, South Chicago, and the only producing furnace in the Chicago district, outside of the Illinois Steel company's works, has been sold to Rogers, Brown & Co. The latter firm takes over the plant and machinery, but does not acquire its capital stock. The price of the plant is $500,000. The buyers are among the largest dealers in pig iron in the country, having offices in Chicago, New York, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Their sales of foundry pig iron last year were over 1,000,000 tons. The head of the firm, William A. Rogers, of St. Louis, is the largest owner of large blast furnaces companies, one at Tonawanda, N. Y., and the other at Painesville, Pa.

TUG MEN'S SOCIETY.

Say That Competition Has Cut Down Rates.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 28.—The tug men of the great lakes got together at the Bessett house yesterday and talked over their affairs. Tug rates have been going down year after year until one can hardly claim that they have reached a point where they cannot make a fair profit. Many efforts have been made in the past to get the tug men together, but

GOWNS FOR SUMMER

The Fabrics Are Already Here, Though the Modes Are Not.

FULL DRESS FROCKS

With Jeweled Embroidery and Hand Painting Are the Late Styles.

Fashion has a variety of enticing charms at all times and seasons; but there is nothing else quite so fascinating after all as her uncertainty, says the New York Sun. Never to be quite sure of what is coming next adds a zest to the pursuit of fashionable dress which nothing else can ever give; and now that we are comfortably settled in our minds as to what is the correct thing for our best winter gown, summer silks, plumes, batistes, organzines and the sheerest laces blossom out in the shops without any regard to temperature or present needs of dress.

Winter materials are promptly switched on as side track when these dainty gowns appear. They will not need for five months, appear on the scene, and we as promptly respond with a growing interest in summer clothes, which is at least a credit to our American propensity to get ahead. Reduced prices are another feature of this season, which makes shopping doubly interesting. With miles of summer shirt waists, striped, plaided and spotted, stretched out on one side, bargains in winter shirt waists on the other, and tempting novelties in thin materials, which every woman loves, lined up in fetching contrast against reduced lengths in wool goods, we can easily foresee the result. No reflection on the wisdom of the shopkeeper are necessary; he knows his prey.

Stripes of various widths, both decided in color and visible only in the weave, predominate in all the new cotton dress goods brought out for early inspection; but flowers and dots are mingled with the stripes in a great variety of designs. Pretty, dainty batistes in plain colors, and white striped with a color, can be bought for 50 and to cents a yard, and then there are embroidered batistes and Swiss muslins in all-over small scroll designs, which every woman loves, lined up in fetching contrast against reduced lengths in wool goods, we can easily foresee the result. No reflection on the wisdom of the shopkeeper are necessary; he knows his prey.

There are also a new crop of silk blouses all over it, silk-dotted moirés, sericaceous canes, but in mixed colors, chevrons, crests and novelty goods from Vienna, which are very desirable. Delicate and charming, prettier than ever, exactly the thing for the clinging skirts and soft effects which are the special feature of fashion. In robe dresses there is a pretty variety of French chailies, dainty plain colors decorated with applications of lace. This is in fashion designs around the bottom of the skirt, which is all shaped and made ready to finish at the bottom and attach to the hand. Sprays of lace are scattered over the skirt above the festoons, and material for the bodice is decorated in the same way. Both black and white lace are used, but the white gives the prettier effect on the pale units of blue, pink, and mauve.

Just how all the pretty summer fabrics are to be made up is a matter of conjecture at the moment, but it is pretty safe to say that our thin gowns will be cut with a train, that overdresses will flourish, and that ruffles of every kind and description will adorn their soft froth from the varying modes of decoration. With the scant skirts and gauzy muslin ruffles are almost a necessity to give the flare and hold the skirt out around the feet. Whatever the overdresses and tines may become later, they have no perceptible effect on the figure yet, so far as broadening it is concerned, for they fit just as closely next to the body as the skirt underneath, and if they are made very long, almost covering the skirt, they take very little from the height.

Summer gowns and how to fashion them may be a very interesting side of fashion in January, but the evening and reception costumes, the general variety in dress for the various social functions now in full swing, are driving the dressmakers frantic. Not dresses of all kinds seem to have the lead for party and dinner gowns, and there is practically no limit to the use of lace. Heavier evening gowns the luxury parent stuff are quite as popular for young ladies as for matrons. Black nets are handsomely embroidered with paillettes and frills of narrow ribbon, the true lovers' knot being one of the favorite patterns. If this design is not carried out in the embroidery, it is made in velvet and used as a decoration for the skirt and bodice.

Moiré silks are very fashionable for evening gowns in all the pale colors. Chiffon is much used for trimmings, and pretty effect being made on the white gowns by introducing a deep rose pink around the shoulders and neck. The short drooping sleeve of the pink chiffon. Some of the party frocks are lined with batiste instead of silk, but this is not a feature of net dresses, which are supplied with a silk lining, a silk or satin skirt over this, and a third one of net. Gray is very popular for dressy gowns of every sort, and strikingly contrast the sleeves and waists. Bands of gray silk, embroidered or hand painted in colors, a portion of the net being traced with frills of gray baby ribbon, trim one gray net skirt above the knee. A ruche of net, edged with the ribbon, finishes the bottom. Silk bands encircle the bodice, and the neck is covered closely with silver, plain white muslin, or a third one of net. The sleeves are transparent and trimmed to match the bodice. Plain white muslin, or a third one of net, is elaborately with lace bands, or spotted mousseline over white satin is pretty for the day. The gowns of black Chantilly over white or a color, the rose tint being used for the bodice and the skirt. A tulle sash finishes the back, and a large bow of spotted red velvet decorates the waist. The belt is also of the velvet. A novel gown in black Chantilly has a bodice of white Irish lace, which covers a portion of the skirt, giving the effect of a coat.

Crepe de chine and lace form another pretty gown. True lovers' knot of velvet being the finish. Another model in the same material shows a wide band of crepe de chine finished on the edge with a chenille ruche like the skirt and a design in embroidery. Pretty, dainty batistes in plain colors, and white striped with a color, can be bought for 50 and to cents a yard, and then there are embroidered batistes and Swiss muslins in all-over small scroll designs, which every woman loves, lined up in fetching contrast against reduced lengths in wool goods, we can easily foresee the result. No reflection on the wisdom of the shopkeeper are necessary; he knows his prey.

Lovely evening gowns are made of crepe de chine in white or pale colors, with a wide band of crepe de chine, which is used for the classic style of skirt, which depends so much on the figure. The crepe de chine is used for the bodice and skirt, and the skirt is finished with a wide band of crepe de chine, which is used for the classic style of skirt, which depends so much on the figure. The crepe de chine is used for the bodice and skirt, and the skirt is finished with a wide band of crepe de chine, which is used for the classic style of skirt, which depends so much on the figure.

Brown mousseline de soie over pink silk is the foundation of one stylish costume, with ruffles of the mousseline for trimming, and a combination of cream lace and ruffles on the bodice. Gowns of light gray cloth embroidered with a soft small cord almost like gros grain. Crepons are here again among the black goods, in new weaves, or ruffs, rather, for they have the appearance of being blown up in small blisters of different sizes.

HOUSE HUNTING IN LONDON.

Difference Between the Recreation There and That in United States.

I have an American friend here who got tired of hiring furnished apartments and paying for furniture which he could never own, says a writer in the Providence Journal. Houses are very much cheaper in London than in New York. One American correspondent lives happily in Chelsea, a part of London at $50 a year rent; another pays $300 rent, and another lives in Bayswater, in London, in a house, for a small money, that he would never have been able to buy in New York. He has a small house, but it is a very nice one, and he has a garden, which is a great advantage here, but if you take an unfurnished house you must pay the water rates, which are usually estimated at about one-third of the rent, and you must really part with $70, including the rates.

adjusted to the figure around the shoulders in the same way, except that the beading is less and very narrow. It is made in the French model, with no seams except under the arm. The tulle-shaped corset cover is very much liked, since it does away with any superfluous material at the waist. A pretty model for a nightgown is an Empire waist, made by gathering the material in a sort of scant puff between two rows of embroidered insertion. A lace-edged frill forms a collar which ends in ribbon noettes on either side, and the sleeves are short. A LUCKY ESCAPE.

The Paris Courts Let Mme. Paulmier Off With a Damage Fee of 15,000 Francs to M. Oliver, Whom She Shot Last September.

Mme. Paulmier, of Paris. She Shot an Editor Because of an Insulting Article Which She Thought He Wrote Concerning Her Husband.

Great interest has been manifested in the trial of Mme. Paulmier, wife of M. Paulmier, a well-known member of the chamber of deputies, Paris, who shot M. Oliver, of La Lanterne, last September, because of an article published in his paper. A notable feature of the case was that the judge gave permission to the advocate of Mme. Paulmier to issue tickets for places in the court room, and the result was that an immense crowd of fashionable Parisians were present to listen to the proceedings.

The trial was extremely exciting from beginning to end, and it is said that Mme. Paulmier's comparatively light sentence is due to the touching reference she made to her husband, who was on the witness stand. She testified that M. Paulmier was young, talented and of unquestionable social standing. The jury acquitted Mme. Paulmier, but the court condemned her to pay 15,000 francs in civil suit, for the material injury sustained by M. Oliver.

Gowns of light gray cloth embroidered with a soft small cord almost like gros grain. Crepons are here again among the black goods, in new weaves, or ruffs, rather, for they have the appearance of being blown up in small blisters of different sizes.

There are also a new crop of silk blouses all over it, silk-dotted moirés, sericaceous canes, but in mixed colors, chevrons, crests and novelty goods from Vienna, which are very desirable. Delicate and charming, prettier than ever, exactly the thing for the clinging skirts and soft effects which are the special feature of fashion. In robe dresses there is a pretty variety of French chailies, dainty plain colors decorated with applications of lace. This is in fashion designs around the bottom of the skirt, which is all shaped and made ready to finish at the bottom and attach to the hand. Sprays of lace are scattered over the skirt above the festoons, and material for the bodice is decorated in the same way. Both black and white lace are used, but the white gives the prettier effect on the pale units of blue, pink, and mauve.

Just how all the pretty summer fabrics are to be made up is a matter of conjecture at the moment, but it is pretty safe to say that our thin gowns will be cut with a train, that overdresses will flourish, and that ruffles of every kind and description will adorn their soft froth from the varying modes of decoration. With the scant skirts and gauzy muslin ruffles are almost a necessity to give the flare and hold the skirt out around the feet. Whatever the overdresses and tines may become later, they have no perceptible effect on the figure yet, so far as broadening it is concerned, for they fit just as closely next to the body as the skirt underneath, and if they are made very long, almost covering the skirt, they take very little from the height.

A LUCKY ESCAPE.

The Paris Courts Let Mme. Paulmier Off With a Damage Fee of 15,000 Francs to M. Oliver, Whom She Shot Last September.

Mme. Paulmier, of Paris. She Shot an Editor Because of an Insulting Article Which She Thought He Wrote Concerning Her Husband.

Great interest has been manifested in the trial of Mme. Paulmier, wife of M. Paulmier, a well-known member of the chamber of deputies, Paris, who shot M. Oliver, of La Lanterne, last September, because of an article published in his paper. A notable feature of the case was that the judge gave permission to the advocate of Mme. Paulmier to issue tickets for places in the court room, and the result was that an immense crowd of fashionable Parisians were present to listen to the proceedings.

The trial was extremely exciting from beginning to end, and it is said that Mme. Paulmier's comparatively light sentence is due to the touching reference she made to her husband, who was on the witness stand. She testified that M. Paulmier was young, talented and of unquestionable social standing. The jury acquitted Mme. Paulmier, but the court condemned her to pay 15,000 francs in civil suit, for the material injury sustained by M. Oliver.

HAVE YOU EVER USED A POROUS PLASTER?

Perhaps you have and it hasn't benefited you—or perhaps it has spread on your skin and stuck to your underclothing and made itself generally nasty.

ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER

never do this, but imitations generally do.

Insist upon having Alcock's and you will get the best and original and the one on the reputation of which others trade.

GOSSIP OF THE STAGE

Madame Adelina Patti is the author of the autobiography in a breezy manner of the "Map." She tells us that the first thing she remembers doing was saying her prayers at night, and she adds "in all the years that have intervened since those days—or, rather, nights, of my early memories—I have never missed saying my prayers before going to bed. Madrid was my birthplace, and my mother was a well-known singer, Catherine Chelva, who at 15 years of age married her teacher, M. Barilli. Her second marriage was with my father, Salvatore Patti, a member of one of the first families in Catania, Sicily. It has erroneously and constantly been stated that my father was a professional singer by tradition and environment. As a matter of fact, his connection with the profession of music was quite accidental; the possession of a very beautiful voice drew him through the persuasion of his friends, to the stage, with which, however, no other member of his family had any association. It has already been confessed for me that Iossini is my favorite master, that Charles Dickens is the main inspiration of my fondness for reading, and that the human qualities I most admire are honesty in man and faith in woman."

The most expensive cast of the Metropolitan costs about $700, says the New York Press. That extravagant program must include Jean de Reszke at $1500, Edouard at $500, Pol Planon at $400 and two or three prima donnas at sums ranging from $500 up to $1000. The last time she was here Mr. Grau had to guarantee Molba, say, thirty performances, at $1500 a night. This year he can secure her services at intervals when she is not engaged in the same honorarium, and instead of agreeing to pay her $1500 for the season he escapes by a payment of $5000 to $12,000. Where, then, does our erratic neighbor find proof for his mathematic calculations? It instructs "Trusty" to give us a performance costing $10,000. Let us see about that. M. Jean, $1500; Mrs. Nordica, $1000; Mlle. Emma, $300; M. Edouard, $500; David Bispham, $250; Mr. Pringle, $100. That is $3850 for the principals. By what system of figuring unknown even to Bluebird can the Herald make out that the chorus and orchestra cost $2500? Chorus singers at the Metropolitan earn $15 a week and fiddlers in the orchestra receive from $5 to $7 a night. All told the expenses of "Trusty and Isidore" do not run over $5000. It draws into the box office $10,000 on an average.

"San Lin," an opera on the subject of the Chinese play, "The Cat and the Chub," the libretto of which is by Henry Blum and the music by Victor Hollander, the conductor of the Metropolitan theater, will be performed for the first time at the Stadt theater, Breslau, in the course of the month.

Calve's mother was a dressmaker. Christine Nilsson recently visited her native village. She first went to the little home of her father, called Snuggles, and bade all the neighborhood to a grand entertainment. Cottolera, another village, was her next destination, and there she put up at the inn where forty-five years ago she had sung, a barefooted child, for pennies from the passers-by.

It is said that Ned Goodwin is thinking of going to England in the spring if Charles Frohman's theater can be procured. If he goes he will give "The Cowboy and the Lady," by Clyde Fitch, as the English like local American roles, but would not care for the plot of "Nathan Hale," in which the British are villains.

Laurence Irving is said to be imitative of his father, Henry Irving, in playing the chief part in "The Crystal Globe," a new London melodrama of the howling type. The character is a mesmerist, so demonstratively weird and flinging in scenes so very sensational that the reviewers poke fun at it. However, the younger Irving is described as a clever actor.

Charles Frohman evidently intends to have an unusually strong company for Maud Adams' support in the revival of "Rome and Juliet" early in May. The management of William Faversham and J. K. Hackett to play Romeo and Mercutio respectively were announced a fortnight ago. William H. Thompson has been selected to play Friar Laurence.

The four sons of Joseph Jefferson are presenting "His Van Winkle" in the Canadian cities with success. Their tour continues until April 2, when Joseph Jefferson rejoins the company for a five weeks' spring tour.

After an experience of three weeks, Kate Claxton gave up the management of the Park theater, Brooklyn, last Saturday night, $1500 out of pocket and with a strained nervous system.

An anti-Semitic theater has been founded in Vienna. No plays by Jews will be admitted, and the dramas given will paint the Jews in black. The municipal council of Vienna has given a plot of ground and a large subvention to the theater.

From Paris comes the statement that Sarah Bernhardt will play "Hamlet" for the first time next spring in London. Some time ago it was told that the prince of Wales advised the actress to play this part. Mrs. Bernhardt brands as false the story that she ventured so close to the brink of Mount Vesuvius that her hair was scorched.

Here is an account of some of the eccentric clothes which adorn the person of Victor Maurel, the baritone, as set forth by a New York newspaper. "One evening last week Maurel appeared in a gray frock coat with a deep black velvet collar, a bright pink shirt, profusely puffed and plaited and so full as to give the effect what used to be known as a Pelora front in the military nomenclature of a decade ago. He wears always a broad-brimmed silk hat with a decorative band. More noticeable than any of these eccentricities is the form of the collar, which are worn—doubtless—elaborate and complicated. They are seen at their best when he appears in evening dress with a white necktie which is certainly unique in the sphere of neckwear. The collar is high and somewhat turned down all around. Below this is a white necktie which does not meet in front by two inches. Where the knot would be under ordinary circumstances the necktie is seen merely a collar button, as the necktie has its ends turned backward in a fashion that is completely incomprehensible only to a person who saw either the original or a photograph. This arrangement throws the showy collar button into such prominence that it must necessarily be decorative. M. Maurel settled that question by having it identical with his shirt studs. In full dress the other shirt in which there were four black buttons with tiny diamonds in the center. The same combination made the collar and the bell-crowned hat. M. Maurel was about as striking a figure as he is on the stage in all the line of De Nevers."

In the last act of "Nathan Hale" and Mrs. Goodwin have a most pathetic parting scene which is played in pantomime. On the opening night in New York it was generally observed that Mrs. Goodwin's pathos was strangely lacking and her playing of this scene improved greatly before the end of the week an explanation was sought. Mrs. Goodwin said that she was so overcome with joy at the manner in which the play was being received by the audience that she found it absolutely impossible to be pathetic.

"Wolfe Tone," a new play, has scored a hit in Dublin. Beerholm Tree thinks of giving a "review" at the end of this season, to mark the end of the century, to string on a central dramatic thread a series of tableaux illustrating the march of civilization for 100 years. The costumes will probably change with the decade.

Frederick Solomon is the stage manager of the New York Casino.

Blanche Walsh is to star in a new play, under the direction of Klaw and Erlanger.

London has its first vaudeville theater on the continuous plan.

Irving is to visit America next season.

Copelin makes no certain speeches.

A London theater is to have a "smoking" room for ladies.

Julie Mackey will star in "The Little Bandit."

THERE ARE OTHERS.

Plenty of Them, But So Different—Local Proof Is What Duluth People Want.

There are a great many of them. Every paper has its share. Statements hard to believe, harder to prove. Statements from far away places. Public utterances in California. Oft times good endorsement there. But of little service here at home. Duluth people want local proof. The sayings of neighbors, friends and citizens.

Home endorsement counts. It disarms the skeptic, is beyond dispute. This is the backing that stands behind every box of Dr. Charles Craspe, gardener, living at 320 First street east, says: "I was a great sufferer from kidney complaint for ten or twelve years and though I took quantities of medicine I got at best but temporary relief. Last fall I was so bad that I did not feel that I could last the year out. I had rheumatism all through my severe pains in my back, limbs and shoulders so that often I could hardly get around. I was weary without number, rubbed myself with liniments, took so much medicine that I lost my appetite. The kidney secretions were very irregular. I saw Dr. Charles Craspe's advertisement and got a box from the Duluth Drug company. I followed the directions and in ten days I felt a great improvement in my condition. I followed the directions and the aches and pains left me. The kidneys were cured. I am now healthy and I feel like another man. I recommend Dr. Charles Craspe's medicine to all who are troubled with kidney complaint. It is a great remedy. I have given it to my family and they are all cured. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Post-Office. Duluth, Minn. B. N. Y. agents for the United States. Remember the name Draspe and take no substitute."

THE FIRST AMERICAN FLAG.

Petticoat of Peter White's Grandmother Provided the Stripes.

According to a tradition which has been handed down in the family, Mrs. Stephen White, grandmother of the Hon. Peter White, was the first to provide the stripes for the first American flag.

This interesting bit of family history is related by Mr. White's supplementary to a history printed on an engraving of the flag, published by Capt. Wallace Foster, of the United States Army. The story is told in a pamphlet which is on file in the library here from which it was obtained by the Herald. The historical sketch mentions of Mr. White's grandfather and speaks of the early history of the flag as follows: "The first recorded legislative action by the Continental Congress was the adoption of the flag, on September 17, 1776, as follows: 'Resolved, That the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation.'"

Although this sketch does not mention where the stripes were provided, it is a fact that the stripes were provided by the grandmother of Peter White.

The sketch also mentions that the flag was first used on September 17, 1776, at the battle of the Clouds.

PLUNGER JIM KEENE

Made a Million and a Quarter Without Losing a Cent.

Has Made and Lost More Fortunes Than Any Other Speculator.

"I did not stand to lose a cent. I had everything my own way in the tobacco deal, and the way matters stood I could not come out behind. It was simply a case of stock investment, buying at a low figure and selling much higher. I had a great deal of stock on hand, the price went high, I sold, and I could not help making money."

As he said this a smile played on the grim features of that prince of plungers, James F. Keene, who has made and lost more fortunes in Wall street than any other man who ever rushed into the maelstrom of speculation.

He was speaking to a New York World reporter about his latest coup, his gigantic deal in American Tobacco company stock. That deal was closed recently, two months ago, by cleverly manipulating the sugar market, but even that did not, it is believed, put him entirely upon his feet. With the price of tobacco he has made out of tobacco his friends claim his way out of debt, and future success seems secured.

For years this man of indomitable pluck has been floundering with his back to the wall. During that time he has made phenomenal winnings, but most of the money has been lost. He has made in former deals. A little more than a year ago he made $2,000,000 in the money market. He has made in the sugar market, but even that did not, it is believed, put him entirely upon his feet. With the price of tobacco he has made out of tobacco his friends claim his way out of debt, and future success seems secured.

Mr. Keene talks lightly about making a million and a quarter, apparently he thinks no more about it than a farmer might about a good horse trade. He says he did not stand to lose a cent, and when the inside facts about the speculation are known it is readily seen that he did not.

Tobacco trust stock has risen from 144.75 to 154.75 within a few months. Wall street was astonished. "Outside" were at a loss to account for a decline of 33 1/2 cents in the shares, or a shrinkage of $7,000,000 in the value of the $20,000,000 of common shares of the tobacco trust. Mr. Keene, however, was a fortune to James F. Keene. Now it appears that intrigue and revenge figure in the story of the memorable slump.

A year ago, in company with H. C. Taylor, C. H. Pease, who represented the Standard Oil trust, James F. Keene, now president of the firm of Moore & Schley, was in New York to close a deal in the American Tobacco company. He was accompanied last late spring by Capt. Wallace Foster, a military officer, who had been in the army for twenty years. The heavy purchases made by these five men naturally sent the stock booming, and when it reached the highest figure—154.75—dealings were heavy.

There is said to have been an agreement between the five men in the deal should sell any stock, at least until negotiations that had been started with the manufacturer of plug tobacco should have been completed. They were trying to force the plug tobacco manufacturers into their combination.

Humors of this greater combination of tobacco interests and the prospects of the country, or at some watering place, were allowed to leak out, and the effect on Wall street was startling. The price of the trust stock fell to 144.75.

Mr. Keene was all this time holding on to his 150,000 more shares, and he supposed that the other four men were doing the same. But Jim Keene is a speculator, and he was not to be caught in the net. He was not to be caught in the net. He was not to be caught in the net.

Within an hour, it is said, he had determined that three of the men allied with him had succumbed to the temptation to unload at the prevailing high figure, and were doing so without notifying him.

Mr. Keene was caught napping while in a similar combination several years ago, but he was not to be caught in the net. He was not to be caught in the net. He was not to be caught in the net.

At almost the highest figure touched by the stock, Mr. Keene decided to sell his shares, and he did it so quickly that the men who, it is alleged, sought to take advantage of him did not realize what was happening. He pocketed his million or more and then watched the market go down to 144.75. When the price got down to 115.50 he is credited with having profited another $2,000,000. He "whipped" the game and made money going and coming. During the panic he sold stock at all the lowest figure his brokers took all that was offered over a controlling interest in from 115 to 116, and as a result the stock bounded upward and the shrewd

STRENGTH FOR WEAK WOMEN.

Ida, Fulton Co., Ill., Jan. 23.

I want to say a few words in praise of Wine of Cardui. For a long time I could not ride anywhere without it bringing on my menses. After taking some Wine of Cardui, I can do anything without any bad effects at all.

Mrs. LAURA GEER.

Some women have to handle themselves as though they were made of glass. The least exertion or strain starts up a pain or aggravates a weakness. This isn't natural. There is no reason why a healthy woman should not possess almost as much strength as a man. Some of them possess more. Plenty of riding and outdoor exercise ought to be a distinct benefit to a woman. It certainly ought not to be a detriment. If weakness or "female complaints" are present, the first step to a restoration of health is a visit to the drug store. Here the sufferer can get a large bottle of Wine of Cardui for $1.00. This should be taken according to directions. From the first dose a gradual but sure strengthening process will begin. Before the first bottle is gone, there will be a wonderful change for the better. It cures in an altogether new way by purifying and strengthening the organs involved. It cures without abhorrent local examinations. Each sufferer is her own doctor.
